

SCHOLARWORKS

ScholarWorks, a service of Lemieux Library and McGoldrick Learning Commons, is the institutional repository of Seattle University. Showcasing the work of faculty, staff, and students, as well as archival items and unique holdings, ScholarWorks is an online portal to Seattle University's intellectual output.

Use ScholarWorks to:

- Increase the visibility and impact of your work
- Make previously published articles openly available online
- Create a personalized profile to showcase your scholarship
- Obtain access to download counts and readership statistics
- Disseminate and preserve materials in any digital format
- Highlight outstanding examples of student work
