

11-9-1933

Spectator 1933-11-09

Editors of The Spectator

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarworks.seattleu.edu/spectator>

---

Recommended Citation

Editors of The Spectator, "Spectator 1933-11-09" (1933). The Spectator. 18.
<http://scholarworks.seattleu.edu/spectator/18>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by ScholarWorks @ SeattleU. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Spectator by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks @ SeattleU.

Enroll in Journalism Class
NOW!

Seattle College SPECTATOR

Get Your Tickets
Now for Student
Play

Volume II.

Seattle College, Seattle, Wash., Thursday, Nov. 9, 1933

Number 2

DRAMATISTS OFFER FIRST PLAY

COURSE IN JOURNALISM OPENED TO STUDENTS

Classes This Quarter To Be Held Thursday Evenings

As a result of the success of the first issue of the Spectator two weeks ago, Fr. McGoldrick, Dean of the College, has announced plans for the formation of a Journalism Department in Seattle College. The professor, E. McHugh, who will head the new Department, holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Washington School of Journalism, and is at present associated with the Catholic Northwest Progress.

As a part of its work, the new Journalism Class will undertake the writing of articles for the paper, Fr. McGoldrick announces. The first class will be held this evening (Thursday) and regularly on Thursday evenings at 7:30 for the rest of this quarter.

One hour credit will be given for this quarter, and three hours credit for the Winter and Spring quarters. This is to be a complete course in Journalism, meeting the requirements of all universities.

Reception Held for New Bishop

At the reception in honor of Most Reverend Gerald Shaughnessy, S. M., Bishop of Seattle, held on November 3 at Garrigan Gymnasium, Catholic college and high school students were urged to show their appreciation of their Catholic education by participating to the fullest degree in Catholic Action.

Bishop Shaughnessy, a graduate of the Jesuit College in Boston, expressed the utmost confidence in the future progress of the College, and congratulated the faculty on the excellent work that they are doing.

Alumni To Hold Book Drive

Some of the more important members of the Alumni Association, including Mr. Moriarty, Mr. Padden, and Mr. Sylvester, are formulating extensive plans for a book drive in order to increase the size of the College library, it was announced last Friday.

Coming Events

November 10—Sodality Dance at St. John's Parish.
November 11—Seattle College Fall Informal at the Yacht Club.
November 25—Dramatic Society presents "Stop Thief" at St. Joseph's Auditorium.

STUDENT MOTHERS FETED AT TEA

Professors, Students, Take Part in Festivities

A large group of mothers of Seattle College students, last Monday afternoon, attended a tea given by the Faculty to acquaint the mothers with the ideals and aims of the school.

After meeting the professors of the various departments and inspecting the school tea was served by the young lady students, during the course of which, student leaders addressed the mothers on various phases of school activities.

Mr. Wendel Shay, president of the Student Body, welcomed the mothers in the name of the students and introduced the speakers. Miss Jane Prouty spoke on the value of debating, dramatics, and all forms of public speaking, in giving poise and self-confidence to the students. Mr. Wendel Jahn then pointed out the utility of the school newspaper in forming and molding a loyal college spirit and in arousing interest among the students, alumni,

(Continued on Page Four)

Captain Mayo Gives Navy Day Address

On Navy Day, October 27, Captain C. B. Mayo of the Department of Defense, U. S. N., gave a short address to the assembled students. In his talk he stressed the need of an adequate navy and told of the work of the navy since the war. He also related some of his own experiences as head of the Naval Reserve in the Northwest, and briefly discussed the relative strength of sea and air craft. His discourse was of great value and gave all a new conception of the navy, its use and purpose.

"STOP THIEF," THREE ACT FARCE TO BE PRESENTED

Play to be Held November 24 at St. Joseph's Auditorium

Rev. Fr. Concannon, director of the Seattle College Dramatic Society, announced early this week that "Stop Thief," a three act farce-comedy by Carlyle Moore, now in rehearsal, will have its first presentation at St. Joseph's School Auditorium on Friday, November 24.

An exceptional cast has been assembled for the production, and a good show is assured. Tickets will be available Friday, November 10, at the price of forty cents, John Martin, in charge of ticket sales, announces.

"Only two weeks remain before opening night," warns Mr. Martin, "so get your tickets now. The success of this first effort of the Dramatic Society is essential to its further progress, and all students should not only purchase tickets for themselves, but should also contact all their acquaintances and friends who would be interested in attending the play."

Students appearing are cast as follows:

Joan, Margaret Peabody; Mrs. Carr, Mary Jo Conley; Caroline, Mary Jo Welch; Madge, Georgina Kilkelly; Nell, Jane Prouty; Mr. Carr, Emmet Freeley; Clun-

(Continued on Page Four)

Prof. Cory Addresses Alumni

At the regular monthly meeting of the Seattle College Alumni last Sunday, Professor Cory, Head of the University of Washington Liberal Arts Department and a recent convert to the Catholic Church, spoke informally on the subject of his conversion.

In addition, the Alumni Association pledged their full support and cooperation to the Spectator, when over twenty-five members signed up for subscriptions and several contracted for advertising space.

Urged to Attend Debates

The debating society, ever increasing in popularity among the students, meets every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All those who do not belong to the Society, but wish to join, should see Fr. Concannon at the earliest possible date.

Seattle College Spectator

The Spectator is published semi-monthly by the students of Seattle College.

Business Address: Seattle College, Broadway and Marion.

Subscription rate, $1.00 per year.

Advertising rates on application.

Staff

EDITOR .....EARL SIFFERMAN

Assistant Editor .....Wendel Jahn

Business Manager .....Carl Robinson

Departments

Sports .....James Casey

Dramatics .....Allan Steele

Sodality .....Joseph Brislawn

Alumni .....Mr. Howard Sylvester

News—Geis, McClaire, Pearce, Freeley,

Lecture

Special Writers—Townsend, Olmer, Sebastian

Faculty Adviser .....Mr. Paul McLane

EDITORIAL

The meaning of cooperation in a school, and especially in a College, is often grossly misconstrued. The conception of the result of failure to cooperate is too frequently underestimated.

College students of today are apt to look askance at cooperation, to consider it as something to be avoided. Due to their misconception of the idea, these young men are depriving fellow-students and their school of an element of vital importance. The idea behind cooperation is not to draw the student away from the performance of his necessary duties; neither is it to consume any undue proportion of his time; but, it means to concentrate all the activities of a student body toward fulfillment of the plans of that group. Thus, a young man, in order to cooperate with some certain activity, needs not to apply all his time and resources toward the attainment of that project. If he feels that he cannot show cooperation to the extent of actually working for a cause, then he can at least have that spirit of cooperation which is so necessary for the success of every institution. For, an incentive to harder work on the part of these workers is the feeling that there is whole-hearted sympathy with the project on the part of everyone.

At some time during the month of November, the faculty of Seattle College has planned to add to its courses that of Journalism, and it is upon this class of Journalism that the hope of a greater Seattle College Spectator depends. The students of the College are asked to cooperate in this respect, not necessarily by attending these classes themselves, but at least by attempting to secure new students for the course.

If cooperation is extended in this manner, the ultimate success of the Journalism Class can be assured, and the hope for a greater Seattle College Spectator be made more secure.

Shorts and Short Shorts

Columbia Law School just boosted their tuition fee approximately 25%. The law faculty, by the way, which proposed it, have not as yet cut their own salaries.

* * *

Rubinoff, according to musicians, is not a good violinist, but thousands of people prefer his fiddling to that of Kreisler's. Yeah? So what?

* * *

To shatter a few of the ladies' illusions may we describe one of Bing Crosby's costumes? O.K.? Light blue jacket, ice-cream pants, black and white shoes, green shirt, orange tie, and a checked cap. And he wears flaming golf knickers in the middle of February. Ouch!

Bing, by the way, is the lad who copped the open golf championship at California recently.

* * *

Believe it or not, good authority has it that the game of football was originated by the Spartans about 500 B. C.

And, while on the subject of football, here's something for Phelan to hang up in his room after that Oregon game; viz., Cumberland University's disastrous record in 1916. Among its defeats were the following scores: Cumberland 0, Georgia Tech 222; Cumberland 0, University of the South 107; Cumberland 0, Henry Kendall 81.

* * *

Speaking of Song Hits—

Have you heard

The Prohibition Song? "You Ferment for Me".

The Prosperity Song? "My Brew Heaven."

The Wash-Woman's Song? "A Slip in the Dip."

The Forehead Song? "King Forehead Day."

* * *

Famous Sayings—

A good talking picture is inferior to a good stage play, while a good silent picture is superior to a stage play.—Charlie Chaplin.

I wrote because it was the only thing I could do.—George Bernard Shaw.

A dirty play that is funny is not so dirty as a play that is just dirty.—Laurette Taylor.

The average official life of a college president is four years. In other words, some presidents are still-born and most die in infancy.—President Gage of Coe College.

* * *

And then there were the two college freshmen, one of whom was so bowlegged and the other so knockkneed, that when they stood next to each other, their legs spelled "ox."

* * *

Definition: A husband is a bachelor who didn't let well enough alone.

Alumni News

Grand Knight Steve Cain did a Grand Slam down a flight of stairs, and spent ten days mending . . . Talbot Carroll is getting rather heavy in the midsection. Could it be beer? . . . Frank Egan traveled East this summer in a Ford and came back alive. There's advertising for you, Henry! . . . A Jesuit once admitted to the writer that Henry Ivers was smarter than he. All right, now swell, Henry . . . Tom McHugh visited Gonzaga last week. Tom was formerly president of the student body over there . . . Did you ever notice how much George Stuntz looks like Bob LaFollette, United States Senator from Wisconsin? . . .

Bernard Keenan will either sell you a watch, or take the one you have. It depends on which direction you are looking . . . It is said that all the University of Washington football team needs is another leader like Bill O'Brien, captain of last year's team, and one of us . . . Harvard can boast of her great lawyers, but what about the College? Where can there be found any better than Padden, LeClair, Moriarty, Ivers, Cain, and Stuntz. Yes, and don't forget the headliners to be, Brothers Malone, Brandmeir, Hoban, Egan, Hazel, and Molthon, at the University of Washington Law School. These boys are all doing right well by their Alma Mater . . . Jack Dillon is devoting time and energy to real estate . . . Tom Duffy, with a black robe over his shoulders, could pass as a Jesuit . . .

Ted Gravelle was found painting over rust spots on his car the other day . . . Harold Malone has handled more beer than the whole Alumni Association together has ever consumed . . . George McAteer can give as peppy a talk as one can wish . . .

Did you know that, as members of this Association, we have:

The youngest Superior Court Judge ever appointed in this State;

A former Captain of a University of Washington football team;

A former president of the Garfield Boys' Club;

The winner of a former all-city high school oratorical contest,

Two former members of all-city football teams?

He drove one of the biggest machines in town.

He worked for one of the biggest concerns in the city.

He did things for everyone.

Everybody knew him and appreciated his work.

He collected rare, old things.

He was the garbage man.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS—IT PAYS!

SPORTS

COLLEGE HOOP STARS AWAIT FIRST TURNOUT

Big Season Planned; Coach As Yet Unnamed

Basketball, the outstanding sport in Seattle College last year, will again get under way sometime this month.

It is hoped that the College will this year become a member of the newly organized Northwest Junior College Basketball Conference, which includes Pacific Lutheran of Tacoma, Mt. Vernon Junior College, Yakima Junior College, Centralia Junior College, and Aberdeen Junior College.

It is the general belief that these schools do not play a faster brand of ball than our own hoopsters, judging from comparative scores of last year when the boys reentered college competition after an absence of more than a decade.

With the material on hand for the coming season, the team should be able to make a good showing. Last year's team is intact, including the following letter-men: forwards, Jimmie Finn, Cad Corrigan, Al Steele, and Bill McClaire; guards, Joe Hurley, Earl Sifferman, Emmet Freeley, Ken Quimby, and John Geis; centers, prep stars expected to bolster the squad Art Olmer and John McGinley. The new are, Herb Conyne from Seattle College High School, Ed Mayovski from O'Dea, and Hal Gilham, former Garfield player.

The coaching situation is still up in the made. Among those names mentioned, air as no definite appointments have been however, are Dr. James Logan, former flash at Creighton University and last year's mentor; Bill Murphy, former Gonzaga star; and T. Granville Egan, former Seattle College star.

Myrdie Lecture is again expected to take over the managerial reins of the hoop team.

Under the Tonsorial Knife

It was graduation day at barber college. All those who had failed in other lines of study were there trying to get some kind of a diploma. Among the aspirants for a barber's license was a chap named Hemingway. He was the "cut-up" of the college. Even then he aspired towards literary things and had just finished a book entitled "Sweepings." This was probably suggested to him by his routine in the barber shop.

It was the first time I had ever met Hemingway. He was the student who jumped on me first. I had no choice in the matter.

"What do you think of Belloc?" he said.

"Yes, languages are interesting," I said, trying to change the subject.

"I'll be famous some day," Ernest said.

"I suppose there are famous barbers," I replied as he slashed me for the fourth time.

"I write books, novels," he shouted, menacing the razor about my head and cutting the air.

"Books, you say?" I said. But I didn't say it so as to arouse his suspicion. What I wanted was to get from under that tonsorial knife. His career had now led him far enough as to be capable of anything.

"We artists are eccentric," he continued, "that's why I'm here."

"I agree," I said. Just now the examiners were approaching. Hemingway made majestic gestures with the razor, as if to attract their approval.

"You have failed," the examiners said.

At six o'clock, when he should have come in, she laid out his dress suit. He did not show up.

At eleven o'clock, when he should have been in, she laid out his pajamas. He did not show up.

At three o'clock, when he finally came in, she laid him out. He did not get up.

SODALITY

Due to the untiring efforts of Rev. Father Prange, the Sodality is now making rapid progress in its work. At the regular meeting on Thursday, November 2, students were appointed to take charge of committees to foster interest in Catholic books and pamphlets. John Martin was placed in charge of the committee for pamphlets, while Bernard Pearce and Leo Sebastian were named to attend to the work of the book committee.

The students will realize that it is of inestimable value to have at their fingertips the names of good Catholic books and pamphlets which will prove both interesting and instructing to them. This realization on the part of Sodalists is a step towards fulfilling their purpose of working in the cause of Catholic Action.

At the same meeting, Father Prange also spoke of devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and of the help in our studies that may be derived from such devotion. It was also planned that Father Prange issue a leaflet in which the names of good Catholic books and pamphlets be written, so as to have a record for the reference of the students.

At a meeting held on Wednesday, November 1, at the Providence Auditorium, James Deady was elected president of the Seattle Sodality Union for this year. Mr. Deady is a former student at Seattle College High School, where he was Prefect of the Senior Sodality. For the past year he has been Secretary of the Union of which he is now president.

The Sodality of Seattle College takes this opportunity to pledge its full cooperation with all the undertakings of the Seattle Sodality Union.

NEUPERT & CO.

Good Groceries at Cut Prices
STALLS 18-25 FIRST and PIKE
Corner Public Market, Lower Floor
Phone Main 6996

SCIENTIFIC SUPPLIES CO.

Laboratory Apparatus and Reagents
For Physical, Biological and Chemical Laboratories
123 Jackson St.

WASHINGTON TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY

L. S. Booth, Treasurer

EMPIRE LAUNDRY CO.

Dry Cleaning
MAin 1849

Phone ELiot 0242

MERZ SHEET METAL WORKS

NEW AND REPAIR WORK FOR Industrial Plants, Residences

Frank J. Merz, Prop. 208 Jackson St.

Compliments of

FRANK M. EGAN

Attorney-at-Law

ELiot 0101 1001 Smith Tower

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES MAKE THE
MOST ACCEPTABLE GIFTS

THE KAUFER CO.
CATHOLIC SUPPLY HOUSE
1904 4th at Stewart

With best wishes to the Spectator

FRANK M. PETSCHL

QUALITY MEATS

Institution and Restaurant Specialists
1901 Pike Place (Foot of Stewart St.)
Phone ELiot 2871

Compliments of the
Class of '33

HAROLD MALONE

JAMES MOLTHON

HOWARD SYLVESTER

Class Officers Announced

At a student body meeting held on Friday, November 3, the class officers for the school year 1933-34 were announced:

For the seniors, Harrington was elected President, Townsend Vice-President, O'Leary Secretary, O'Callaghan Treasurer, and McMullen Sergeant-at-Arms.

Junior officers are President, Emmet Freeley; Vice President, Joseph Hurley; Secretary-Treasurer, John Cassidy.

For the Sophomores, Casey received the office of President, Gallagher that of Vice President, Steele that of Secretary-Treasurer, and Daubenspeck the position of Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Freshmen elected Mayovski President, Bob Smith Vice President, Basel Secretary-Treasurer, and Quimby Sergeant-at-Arms.

What might be termed a practical course in fisheries is being taken by two Freshmen and a Junior. They have been attending "class" every afternoon down on the waterfront from one to five o'clock. The subject studied so far has been "How to wrap frozen fish." And—yes, you've guessed it. One of the "students" is none other than Bill Jahn, the Sage of Alaskan Waters.

The "Sleepers" of the Freshman Class came to life long enough during Apologetics period the other day to engage in a lively debate with Father McGoldrick. The discussion was greatly enjoyed by the rest of the class, all of whom eagerly listened to the rebuttals of both parties. "Sleepers" finally came out second best when his arguments were firmly and decisively denounced as preposterous, absurd, and heretical. "He didn't understand me," was the loser's only comment. It will take him several days of dozing to get over any ill effects resulting from his over exertion.

COMPLIMENTS
OF A FRIEND

WORLD WIDE RECEPTION
—on—

SHORT WAVE SETS

BUY SETS AND PARTS FOR RECEIVING and TRANSMITTING at lowest prices at

MAin 3195 WEDEL CO. 520
INC. 2nd

DEBATE MEETINGS HELD

On Monday evening, October 23, the Debating Society of Seattle College met for the second time this year, the subject for discussion being, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Be Abolished." The affirmative, consisting of Mayovski, Corrigan, and Steele, won the decision over their opponents, Freeley, Maher, and Lecture, who represented the negative.

At the next debate, held on October 30, the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Annex Cuba," was discussed. The affirmative was upheld by Gallagher and Halpin, while Brislawn and Steele advanced the arguments of the negative. In this debate there was no decision, so closely matched were the contestants. At this meeting, subjects for debate for coming weeks were given by the president, Mr. Hurley, and speakers for these debates were also appointed.

Play to be Presented

(Continued from Page One)

ey, Bob Lee; Jamison, Allan Steele; Dr. Willoughby, Jim Casey; Rev. Mr. Spelain, Gene Galvin; Jack Doogan, Jack Gallagher; Joe Thompson, Hal Gilham; Police Sergeant, Frang Harrington.

Mothers Feted at Tea

(Continued from Page One)

and the general public in the activities of the school.

Mr. James Casey talked on social activities as an agent in obtaining for the students a social polish and elegance proper to Catholic college graduates.

CARD PARTY AND SOCIAL

—given by—

Sodality Girls of St. John's Parish

St. John's School Auditorium

Admission 25c Nov. 10, 8:30 p.m.

Compliments of

JOHN P. GALLAGHER
Attorney-at-Law

L. STAVIG

Fancy Groceries and Meats
1002 23rd Avenue North
PRospect 0500

Eat

FRIGID-ZONE
Shrimp Meat

At the C.D.A. Dance

John Martin "turned back the clock" with a ludicrous Dutch Boy costume. He took a prize, too. Congratulations, John.

Morgan Boyle proved he could do things with a megaphone while officiating as the master of ceremonies.

Carl Robinson wore a mournful expression most of the evening. Next time he takes his girl to a dance he's going to have a dance with her.

"Never again!" say Sebastian and Basel, after acting as costume judges and meeting with a cool reception from everybody.

ELiot 2979

1522 1/2 7th Ave.

ANTHONY'S BINDERY

General Bookbinding

Established 1882

FRANK PERRI

MERCHANT TAILOR

ELiot 0755

211 Vance Bldg.

Compliments of

GEORGE R. STUNTZ

Attorney-at-Law

COMPLIMENTS

OF A FRIEND

Compliments of

STANLEY J. PADDEN

—and—

CHARLES P. MORIARTY

Compliments of

EDWARD L. COCHRANE

Attorney-at-Law

Compliments of

JOHN L. CORRIGAN

Attorney-at-Law

MAin 5120

511 Olive Street
Med.-Dent. Bldg.

WESTERN OPTICAL CO.

PRESCRIPTION OPTICIANS
J. Charles D'Amico