Honorary Degree

THE HONORABLE JOHN JOSEPH HEARNE

The momentous events of every age, even in the wake of disillusionment and war, produce men of a stature worthy to meet the human entanglements of their generation. The turbulent advent of the Irish Republic has been no exception.

Animated by the legendary heroes of Ireland's relentless struggle for freedom, The Honorable John Joseph Hearne, the present Ambassador from Ireland to the United States, has successfully and courageously performed the challenging duties of state which his country has entrusted to his care. As an apostle for world peace, Mr. Hearne spent thirteen years of his official life as Ireland's representative at the League of Nations, attending every assembly until 1939.

When World War II severed the forces of humanity and jeopardized the safety of neutral Ireland, Mr. Hearne was summoned to Ottawa to protect his country's interests. For eleven years the resourceful Mr. Hearne hurdled the hazardous obstacles of diplomacy and cemented the bonds of international co-operation.

In 1937, when the Irish Free State was resolved to draft a constitution commensurate with its maturity, Mr. Hearne again responded to the call of duty. Through his profound experience and wisdom in the law, he helped frame this constitution for Ireland, a nation for which so many of us here cherish a spiritual and cultural bond of kinship. Alluding to the liberality of this document, Mr. Hearne has pronounced it "the most comprehensive code of Christian democratic social doctrines and principles ever enacted in a national constitution."

Therefore, as a fitting recognition of all these attainments and achievements, Seattle University is proud to bestow upon The Honorable John Joseph Hearne the seal of its sincerest approval — the degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa.

Baccalaureate Honors

Based on the four-year scholastic record of the graduate, baccalaureate honors require the earning of at least 90 quarter hours as a Junior and Senior at Seattle University, the securing of at least the grade B in the comprehensive written examination in Philosophy and Theology, and the attainment of a high grade point average in the four-year curriculum of studies. A candidate who has made an average of 3.25 graduates Cum Laude; one who has made an average of 3.5, Magna Cum Laude; one who has made an average of 3.75, Summa Cum Laude. An A grade carries four grade points, a B 3 grade points, a C 2 grade points, a D 1 grade point, and an E no grade points.
