

The Spectator

5-2-1934

Spectator 1934-05-02

Editors of The Spectator

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarworks.seattleu.edu/spectator>

Recommended Citation

Editors of The Spectator, "Spectator 1934-05-02" (1934). The Spectator. 30.
<http://scholarworks.seattleu.edu/spectator/30>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by ScholarWorks @ SeattleU. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Spectator by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks @ SeattleU.

Student Officers For Ensuing Year To Be Chosen Thurs.

Shay Will Try For Re-Election; Hurley, Freeley, Also In Race

Student elections for the scholastic year 1934-35 will be held at the general student body meeting at 11:00 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to Wendell Shay, student president.

Officers to be elected include a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. Constitutional provisions require that the president be a member of the senior class, and the vice-president a member of the Junior class. Voting will be by secret written ballot.

All enrolled students of the college are privileged to vote in the student election. This year's election will mark the first time women students have participated in the election of student officers.

Three candidates for president, according to political observers, who appear outstanding are Wendell Shay, incumbent, Joseph Hurley, present vice-president and Emmet Freeley, president of the Junior class.

The probable nominees for the position of vice-president are James Casey, president of the Sophomore class, Allan Steele, Cadwell Corrigan and Jack Gallagher.

ANNUAL ALUMNI REUNION WILL BE HELD ON SUNDAY

Seattle College Alumni Association will hold its annual reunion at 9:00 a.m. Sunday morning at St. Joseph's Church.

Alumni members will first attend Mass to be celebrated by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Theodore M. Ryan, '09. A short breakfast-meeting in the church auditorium, featured by addresses by Very Rev. John Balfe, S.J., new president of Seattle College, and Judge Charles P. Moriarity, ex-'15, will follow.

Howard Sylvester, president of the Alumni Association, is striving to make this year's reunion the largest in the history of the organization. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all past and present students of the college.

"No loyal alumnus of Seattle College will miss this big annual reunion," reminds Mr. Sylvester. "Round up the members of your class, and have a grand get-together next Sunday."

Guyheen Backs Library Drive

Philosophy Department Sponsored By MacDougall's Treasurer

Patrick W. Guyheen, treasurer of MacDougall's Department Store, this week volunteered to sponsor the Philosophy Department of the Seattle College Library.

Patrick W. Guyheen
Courtesy N. W. Progress
and Seattle Star

Stressing the fact that the growing youths of the country should be familiar with the stabilizing principles of Scholastic philosophy, Mr. Guyheen stated that it was his desire to make the College's philosophy department equal to that of any institution in the West.

"A knowledge of Scholastic philosophy is a pressing need in the present political and industrial crisis that confronts not only our own nation, but the whole civilized world," said Mr. Guyheen. "If we do have to experiment it is important that our experiments be based upon sound ethical principles."

A survey of the philosophy sections is now being made, and the volumes needed will be ordered as soon as it is completed, according to Frank Harrington, librarian.

Debating Society Will Argue Child Labor At Sacred Heart

Seattle College's Debating team, consisting of Joseph Hurley, Robert Smith, Bernard Pearce, and an undetermined debater, will argue the Child Labor Amendment question before the Sacred Heart branch of the Holy Names Society at 7:30 p.m., May 11, in the Sacred Heart Hall, Second Avenue North and John Street.

Hurley and his partner will take the affirmative, arguing for the adoption of the pending Child Labor Amendment, while Smith and Pearce will defend the negative.

All Look Forward To Dance Saturday At Sand Point Club

Syncopated Tunes Supplied By Bob White's Popular Band

By Wendell Shay

Seattle College, with all her campus heroes, is eagerly anticipating the Spring Informal, which augers well to surpass even the Winter Informal of last January.

The Spring Informal is set for this Saturday night at the Sand Point Golf and Country Club and is to be danced to the music of Bob White's orchestra.

Joe Hurley, master of affairs, backed by his committee, is smiling "a sellout." Subject to county game laws, anyone having a representative of the weaker sex, and the necessary stipend of a dollar, may as yet swing through the magnificent turnstile of the club.

Bob White has promised many novel orchestrations. Advance auditions hall this seven-piece orchestra as one of the best ever to play for a Seattle College dance. Dancing will be in order from 9:30 to 12:30.

PLAY TICKETS GO ON SALE BEGINNING NEXT MONDAY

Tickets for "Broken Dishes," forthcoming presentation of the Seattle College Dramatic Society will be placed on sale next Monday with Carl Robinson in charge. The price of tickets will be forty and twenty-five cents, the lower price being for students. A distinctive program will be issued for this play and will be handled by James Casey.

The cast of "Broken Dishes" is practicing daily under the tutelage of Rev. John A. Concanon, dramatic coach, and reports intimate that most satisfactory progress is being made. The part of Dr. Stump, to have been portrayed by John Martin will in all probability be played by Gene Galvin. Martin was forced to withdraw from the cast due to other conflicting activities. Galvin, who has been active in dramatics throughout the city in the past few years will portray the part of a country minister.

With this change the cast is set, and rehearsals during the next few weeks will give the finishing touches to the production.

Seattle College Spectator

The Spectator is published every other Thursday by students of Seattle College.
 Business Address: Seattle College, Broadway and Marion.
 Subscription rate, $1.00 per year.
 Advertising rates on application.

EDITORWENDEL JAHN
 Associate EditorBernard Pearce
 Business ManagerCarl Robinson

STAFF

SportsJames Casey, Ward Smith
 DramaticsAllan Steele, Mary Jo Welch
 Sodality—Joseph Brislaw, Margaret Peabody.

AlumniHoward Sylvester
 News Writers and Copy Readers
 Jane Prouty, Bob Smith, Leo Sebastian,
 Marguerite Anderson, Ed Brotherton,
 Kenneth Compton.

Reportorial

Wendel Shay, Emmet Freeley, Morgan Boyle, Marjorie O'Neill, Mary Brandmeir.
 Faculty AdviserE. McHugh

SPECTATOR IS NON-PARTISAN

Student elections will take place tomorrow. The Spectator since it is the paper of all the students, is politically non-partisan. Writers in signed stories have expressed preferences for certain candidates, but such preference is purely that of the writer, and does not convey the support of the paper. It is merely the opinion of the man whose name is attached to the article.

The columns of the Spectator are open to communications of a reasonable length supporting any candidate.

MENTION THE SPECTATOR

Undoubtedly most of the students try to patronize SPECTATOR advertisers, but—do they mention the SPECTATOR? That is something equally important, for the advertiser wants to know whether or not he is getting results. Make it a practice to not only patronize advertisers but to mention the fact that you appreciate their ad in the SPECTATOR.

The Spectator wishes to take this opportunity of expressing the sympathy of the staff and of the student body to Jack Gallagher who has suffered the loss of his father.

COMING EVENTS

- May 3—Student Elections.
- May 5—Spring Informal.
- May 6—Big Annual Alumni Breakfast.
- May 18—S. C. Dramatic Society Presents "Broken Dishes."

SNAP SHOTS

By ART OLMER

Well, somebody left the door open and here I am again.

* * *

And Crystal Pool is threatening to sue Etue for the expense they were put to repairing the furrow he carved in the tank with his nose.

* * *

Things are coming to a pretty pass when class must be terminated five minutes early so Betty Williams can have her hair waved.

* * *

Earl Sifferman is back from his first ocean jaunt and reports that his college education did him no good—he was not made Captain.

* * *

And Jane Prouty just stopped to quash the rumor that Caesar wore sandals because he thought there were enough heels in the senate.

* * *

Before I forget, Emmet Freeley has risen to remark that he doesn't like to be called "Wolf."

* * *

Bill McClaire and Myrdie Lecture want it strictly understood that they could hear the music at the Mothers' Club Dance. Well, boys, you'd have fooled me.

* * *

And when a girl says her mouth is watering for a hamburger, Ed Birney always comes through—with a blotter.

* * *

We hear that Betty Ann Hanley has quite a system for getting two pieces of pie at a time. (Hic Vot Iss, Betty Ann and Angela.)

* * *

And from the evidence found on Bob Lee's collar (and elsewhere), he evidently had a good time at the party after the Glee Club. That's all right, Bob, I've had things in my eyes too—fists and things.

* * *

Wonder why Joe Drew is always asking Daub about the size of his bankroll? . . . And if Bob Smith ever has his own match and cigarette at the same time?

* * *

And Bill Jahn says he is glad to hear that Bob Smith is a self-made man because it relieves the Creator of a terrible responsibility. (That's what you get for chizzlin', Bob.)

The Student Observer

Guest Conducted by JACK McMULLEN
 That dance! What are you doing about it?

The catch-phrase of most credit this week as regards the dance was given by one of the students: "Say, Joe, I will need a few more tickets."

Joe counters with a question, "How are they going?" The fair maiden returned the answer: "They are going equal to the effort I put into selling them."

There is a spirit for you, and if all were to assume the same attribute the advance sale of tickets would look like an opening of the Follies on Broadway. If we fail to support this advance ticket sale, the famous phrase of Jimmy Durante, "It's mutiny," can be used by none other than the chairman, Joe Hurley.

* * *

"Broken Dishes" seems to have been bounced around a god deal, but the life of a director is one of trouble and woe. Let's give Father Concannon our support and good will to make "Broken Dishes" the masterpiece of the 1934 college dramatic season.

Each play has surpassed its predecessor and anyone asked in future to assist with his or her dramatic ability should take advantage of the opportunity. Dramatics are for your benefit. Why not benefit by them?

* * *

In the new catalog that Seattle College is issuing, school discipline is covered by the somewhat curt statement that "the student of Seattle College is always a gentleman." The faculty have decided that nothing more is, or should be necessary. And looking back over the past year we discovered that not one official reprimand or special legislation has been made, relating to the activities of the students.

The students feel proud of this record, and the trust that the school authorities have in the self-government of the students in regard to their behavior.

Maintain this high standard of conduct. I believe that the students would rather handle their own problems than have matters forcibly called to their attention by those in authority.

Verbum Sapienti.

MANCA'S
Mayonnaise

Dobler Beats Lucid To Win S. C. Ping-Pong Championship

After dropping the first game in the finals to Jack Lucid, Joe Dobler came back with three in a row to win the ping-pong championship of the college last Friday. The game scores were 16-21, 21-19, 21-19, and 24-22.

The smashing drives of the seeded number one man was his margin of victory. Lucid faltered in the second and third games but rallied in the final to push Dobler to deuce four times. Except in the initial encounter Dobler took the lead from the start and held it throughout.

In the semi-finals, Dobler took the measure of Steele 21-18 and 21-16. Again, the hard-driving, smoking game of Dobler was much in evidence. In the quarter-finals, Kail and Frank Maher defaulted to Steele and Dobler, while Lucid byed into the finals on the draw.

Maroon Hoopers To Dine At K. C. Hall Thursday

The annual basketball dinner will be held tomorrow evening at 6:00 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Club rooms.

George Stuntz, director of athletics, Walt Gallagher and Bernard Monohan are in charge of arrangements.

Students, alumni and friends of the college who wish to attend should phone for reservations at the Knights of Columbus. The dinner will be fifty cents a plate.

SPORTS

VICTORY OVER MUGS GIVES COOKIES LEAD

TEAM STANDINGS

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Cookies	7	3	.700
Tigers	6	3	.667
Wolves	5	4	.550
Mugs	1	9	.100

Behind the stellar pitching of Allan Steele, Casey's Cookies broke the league tie prevalent in the race the last week to forge into the lead Friday when they took the Mugs into camp 10-8.

The Cookies, though they played erratic ball in the field, hit in the pinches to gain their victory. The "Shine" gave only six hits and two passes. Finn and Casey each had two for three for the Cookies, with the former spiking the plate three times.

Leo Duffy was the batting star for the Mugs with two doubles and a single.

McGinley's club won their first victory on Thursday, when they upset the Wolves 5-2. Joe Hurley hurled fine ball for the winners striking out big Dave Mitchell four times, and limiting Woods' boys to seven hits. Quinn took hitting honors for the day, banging three on the nose.

THE WEEK'S SCORES:

Cookies 10, Mugs 8; Mugs 5, Wolves 2; Tigers 7, Cookies 4; Cookies 11, Wolves 4; Tigers 15, Mugs 11.

Bishop Shaughnessy Feted At Sodality Union Reception

Climaxing the activities of the Seattle Sodality Union was the reception for Most Rev. Gerald Shaughnessy, S.M., Bishop of Seattle, at Holy Names Academy Auditorium on last Friday. Representatives from Catholic schools gave detailed reports of good works accomplished through the Sodality Union.

Students of Immaculate High School sang the opening hymn of welcome as the Bishop entered, and several other musical selections were also offered.

The pledge of the Legion of Decency which condemns vile and unwholesome moving pictures, was taken by the assembled students. His Excellency addressed the Sodalists and expressed his pleasure at the adoption of the pledge, and stated his intention of having the pledge printed and circulated throughout the diocese.

FRANK PERRI

MERCHANT TAILOR

ELiot 0755 211 Vance Bldg.

EMPIRE LAUNDRY CO.
Dry Cleaning
MAIn 1849

NEUPERT & CO.

Good Groceries at Cut Prices
STALLS 18-25 FIRST and PIKE
Corner Public Market, Lower Floor
Phone MAIn 6996

J. W. GIBSON

CARPET CLEANING AND RUG
WEAVING CO.
Remaking, fitting and laying all kinds of carpets and linoleum
PRospect 8400 1219-21 Rainier Ave.

ELITE BAR and BEER PARLOR

Broadway North and Roy St.

Broadway Hall Pharmacy

Broadway and Madison
TRY OUR FOUNTAIN
Everything of the Best at Reasonable Prices
We Also Carry School Supplies

O'NEILL FLORISTS

6th and Olive Street
MAIn 4143

TIRES

Vulcanizing and Repairing
"House of Bradley"
P. J. BRADLEY & SONS
INDEPENDENT TIRE STORE
East 2121 1433-12th at Pike

McGrath Candy Co.

2509 Western Ave.

BLACK BALL LINE

Colman Dock — Seattle
Main 2222

CORONA BLEND COFFEE

Now packed in glass vacuum jars
Commercial Importing Co.
IMPORTERS and ROASTERS

Eat

FRIGID-ZONE
Shrimp Meat

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES MAKE THE
MOST ACCEPTABLE GIFTS

THE KAUFER CO.
CATHOLIC SUPPLY HOUSE
1904 4th at Stewart

SCIENTIFIC SUPPLIES CO.

Laboratory Apparatus and Reagents
For Physical, Biological and Chemical Laboratories
123 Jackson St.

MEET YOUR FRIENDS
AND DANCE AT—

The TOWN PUMP
908 12th AVE.
2 BLOCKS SOUTH OF MADISON
CA. 7420

Sandwiches15c

Catalog Will Reveal Growth Of Greater Seattle College

Arrangements have now been completed for publication of the revised catalogue of Seattle College prepared by Rev. Maurice Flaherty, S.J., dean of education. No definite date has been set for its appearance but it is expected to come off the press before May 15.

The catalogue will be the largest in the history of the college, containing over 100 pages. Courses of the several departments are arranged in majors and minors. Students are offered majors in 11 different departments in combination with Arts and Science, leading to the degrees of B. A., B. S., Ph. B., and B. L. I.

A feature is the enlargement of the Journalism Department, which now offers a B. A. degree with a major in journalism.

Special emphasis in the catalogue is placed on the science courses for pre-medical students. A complete pre-med course is now offered at the college under the direction of Mr. Paul Jorgenson, M. S., Ph. D.

Journalism Students To Visit P.-I.

Journalism students enrolled in the course of Newspaper Make-up and Head Writing will next Tuesday evening secure a practical knowledge of news handling when they visit the editorial offices of the Post-Intelligencer, local Hearst organ, as part of their course work.

News stories will be followed from the time they leave the reporter and teletype, through the hands of the various editors, copy-readers, head writers and proof readers, through all the various mechanical processes until in cold type they reach the waiting public.

FRANK M. PETSCHL

Wholesale QUALITY MEATS Retail
1901 Pike Place (Foot of Stewart St.)
Phone ELiot 2871

L. STAVIG

Fancy Groceries and Meats
1002 23rd Avenue North
PRospect 0500

National Fruit Canning Co. VALAMONT BRAND

SEATTLE MADE FOOD PRODUCTS

Canned Fruits, Preserves, Mince Meat,
Peanut Butter and Pork and Beans

LIBRARY TRANSFERRED TO ENLARGED QUARTERS

Increase in the number of volumes in the library last week necessitated the removal of the library from its former position on the second floor, to a new location in the basement. Allowing for expansion, enough shelves to accommodate approximately 15,000 volumes have been built.

To facilitate the borrowing of books, the Sophomore classroom, directly over the library, has been converted into a reading room. A dumb waiter and a circular staircase will connect the two rooms.

Two librarians, one stationed in the reading room, and the other in the library proper, will be on duty during specified hours throughout the day, and books will be taken out through the reading room. The former library will be made over into a biology laboratory and the room previously used as a study hall will be utilized as a classroom.

The Spectator office has been moved to the reserve study to make space for the Sophomore class. The book store will also be moved, and will continue its activity in conjunction with the library.

Seattle Secretarial School

P. D. Rooney, President
Ranke Bldg. 5th and Pike
MAin 2844

Former Head Of S. C. Passes In San Mateo, California

Word that Rev. Charles F. Carroll, S.J., 56 years old, former president of Seattle College and former dean of Gonzaga University, died Saturday in San Mateo, California, after a heart attack, was received here last week.

Father Carroll was born in San Francisco in 1877. He served as president of Seattle College from 1911 to 1914 where he gained prominence as an outstanding orator. From 1914 to 1917 he served as pastor of the Church of the Immaculate.

TRY 10-39

Always Fresh — Always Good
QUEEN ANNE CANDY CO.

Compliments of

JOHN L. CORRIGAN
Attorney-at-Law

Compliments
of

HARRY T. ASHMORE
Funeral Director

MacDougall's

Finest Quality, High Permanent Luster

ENGLISH BROADCLOTH SHIRTS

$1.00

WHITE, BLUE, TAN, GREEN, GRAY

—ON SALE SATURDAY, MAY 5—

EVERY SHIRT IS GUARANTEED TO GIVE
COMPLETE SATISFACTION

• Some of the features of this shirt are a big full size shirt with custom-tailored collar that will fit perfectly. The shirt is fully pre-shrunk, and absolutely fast color. The sleeves are pleated to allow for extra fullness at the elbow.