speak of the incident without tears (even then at 70 years)

I had risen above - to a higher plane that is why I saw all these things as defects. - A Principle here.

has been like a golden thread - which even her mother's death has been kinder to see.

For a time Dr. M. practiced privately on Rome problem in clinics, hospitals and private. A noble incident from the first reveals the magnanimity of her work & also her love for children.

(This was told me by a lady who was in Rome at the time) Dr. M. was called to attend to ~~two~~ <sup>a few more and</sup> ~~two~~ <sup>all</sup> ~~two~~ little children babies - twins - less than a year old.

~~She was at the point of death~~ <sup>at the time</sup> ~~she~~ <sup>was</sup> ~~was~~ a widow and poor. & without nurse help. This young Dr. instead of just writing gave her advice & went to prescription - stayed in 10 days.

~~She~~ ~~the~~ ~~she~~ ~~it~~ ~~was~~ ~~entirely~~ ~~due~~ ~~to~~ ~~her~~ ~~assistance~~ Attention that ~~has~~ ~~been~~ ~~very~~ ~~valued~~ - so much so that - years after - when Dr. M. was and to meet Dr. M. in St. Peter's in Rome - she said to her children: "So & great her my dear: for she is your mother too she for she gave you your lives"
