Honorary Degrees

WILLIAM P. BLATTY

"Upon a significant novelist and film producer whose unique creation and imaginative treatment of the ancient Mephistopheles theme is in the best of the gothic tradition; whose vivid pen has generated a widely-read novel, stirred discussion here and abroad; and earned the commendation of several notable critics; whose screen play has recently been awarded an Oscar.

"As the 18th Century gothic novel was born to 'call Hell to the rescue' of what one contemporary characterized an 'Iron Age,' so 'The Exorcist' memorably objectifies Evil in a time which would as soon ignore it; incisively opens for consideration the non-material dimension and rejects the hegemony of modern naturalism; it speaks to all of the enduring power and ultimate triumph of Love as it successfully contests with that which would debase man's nobility and see to his alienation from self, his fellow man, and his God.

"His achievement with 'The Exorcist' culminates a writing career which began at Georgetown University, was furthered at George Washington University where he earned an English Masters degree, and which has shaped the creation of several novels and screenplays.

"Upon William P. Blatty, Jesuit alumnus, author, and producer the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa."

MILTON KATIMS

"Upon the Maestro in commemoration of this twentieth anniversary of his contributions to music and the arts in Seattle and the Pacific Northwest; who has received international acclaim for his exemplary leadership; for his dedication to the field of music.

"A native of New York City, child of Hungarian-Russian heritage, his achievements and recognition as a violist, his international reputation as instrumentalist, mark him a protege of Arturo Toscanini. Maestro Katims, in addition to performing and conducting, has presented numerous recordings to the public, and published significant arrangements of classical works for his contemporaries.

"He enjoys the reputation as one of America's most distinguished musical figures, communicating an outstanding love for and enjoyment of music; for nurturing creatively his artistic sensitivities in audiences all over the world.

"He has encouraged and promoted the performance of classical and contemporary music within our school systems as well as for the public. He has inspired his listeners to the highest appreciation of music.

"Upon Milton Katims of Columbia University, outstanding Music Director and Conductor of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra since 1954, architect for the arts, friend of Seattle University, the degree of Doctor of Music, honoris causa."

Academic Costume

The caps, gowns and hoods universally worn by faculties and candidates for degrees at graduating exercises are a costume dating back to the Twelfth Century. In medieval days the scholars were clerics; the buildings were cold; capes and hoods were required for warmth, the robes of scholars were similar to the cassocks of the clerics.

In the course of years of development, caps with tassels have replaced capes for the head covering, the hooded cape has been modified into the present hood, and the gowns with long flowing sleeves have been redesigned to indicate the character of the degree of the wearer. In 1893, a student movement in the United States endorsed academic apparel as overcoming awkwardness and difference in dress at graduation exercises and resulted in a standardization of academic costume in this country.

The Intercollegiate Code, adopted in 1895, recognizes three styles of gowns: a bachelor's gown, a master's gown, and a doctor's gown. The differences in these gowns are mainly in the cut and shape of the sleeves and in the trimming. Hoods are also recognized for each of the above degrees and vary in shape, size and length. The shell of the hood matches the black material of the gown, and is lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The velvet bordering of the hood is of a color indicative of the field of learning to which the degree pertains. The Oxford cap, proper for all degrees, is worn both indoors and outdoors with academic costume. The tassel, worn over the left eye once the degree is conferred, is also symbolic of the degree and conforms to the code of colors for hood trimming. Prior to the actual conferring of the degree the tassel is worn over the right eye. Holders of doctor's degrees are entitled to wear a gold tassel. The tassel of a bachelor's degree indicates the field in which the degree is granted. The color for each field of learning follows:

Arts, Letters and Humanities	White	Library Science	Lemon
Business	Olive Drab	Medicine	Green
Dentistry	Lilac	Music	Pink
Economics	Copper	Nursing	Apricot
Education	Ice Blue	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Engineering	Orange	Physical Education	Sage Green
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Affairs	Peacock Blue
Journalism	Crimson	Science	Golden Yellow
Laws	Purple	Theology and Divinity	Scarlet
