Honorary Degrees

EDWARD PATRICK LENAHAN

Upon a publisher and executive whose efforts to distill the factual from fancy in the public interest are widely known; who assists business and free enterprise by commitment to sound principles of editorial selectivity and a judgement which discards the popularly acceptable in favor of truth; whose efforts have consistently refused to pander to minds which that earlier publisher, Dr. Johnson, designated as “. . . not informed by experience and consequently open to every false suggestion and partial account.” To a leader identified closely with the eloquent written word at a time when its demise in classroom and city can only be lamented and its regeneration dependent on those dedicated to its vitality.

To one who, prior to its becoming “current,” was sensitive to modern society’s search for meaning on an international level; whose appeal to a cosmopolitan audience incisively charts this world’s changing modes and fortunes.

Upon Edward Patrick Lenahan, a Jesuit graduate, alumnus of Harvard University, who serves with distinction the goals he has shaped; upon the Publisher of FORTUNE MAGAZINE and Vice President of TIME, Seattle University confers the degree Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.

MILDRED F. JEFFERSON, M.D.

“Upon a woman who uses with single-minded purpose her gift of life to reflect the glory bestowed upon her by the Creator; who has struggled without fear or favor through obstacles of ignorance manifest in social and cultural matters to attain those goals she set for herself; to a black woman whose genetic heritage gave her courage, did not limit her comprehension, or quell her dedication to achievement; to a physician whose every action is a vanguard incentive, this International Women’s Year.

To a sister who by her example has dared, with her supporters, to withstand the popular currents and to express again old and sacred values lest they be slain or quenched; she endeavors in legislative halls to prevent life-honoring values from being rendered moot by tainted ethics and modern exigencies; upon a physician whose knowledge of science and its applications serves the higher moral values she represents.

To a surgeon who accomplishes the hallowed purpose of her ancient oath—to heal and sanctify the sick and wounded; who serves both body and spirit in her dedication to serve Life.

Upon Dr. Mildred F. Jefferson, fully-qualified general surgeon on the Staff of University Hospital of Boston University Medical Center; Assistant Clinical Professor of Surgery on the faculty of Boston University School of Medicine; Councilor from Suffolk District to the Massachusetts Medical Society and Member of the American Medical Association; distinguished alumna of Harvard University School of Medicine and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Right to Life Committee, Seattle University is honored to bestow the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.”
