CHARLES HABIB MALIK
*Doctor of Laws
Honors Causa*

As the vitality of human establishments flows mainly from the wisdom and conviction of those who direct them, so when frantic nations were shocked into a new alliance, the resulting confederacy, the United Nations, was desperately in need of superlative leadership and this from men so large in character as to rise above the parochialism of national origins.

Charles Habib Malik has presided from the chairs of highest authority in this critical forum of mankind. Effective and respected in whatever capacity he has chosen to serve—whether as President of the Economic and Social Council, President of the Security Council, or President of the Thirteenth General Assembly—this forthright representative of the Lebanese Republic guided his peers with wisdom and directed their assembly with resolution.

Parallel to his brilliant diplomatic career has been his enduring engagement with the highest learning. A scholar in his own land, at the American University of Beirut, and in ours where he received his Doctorate in Philosophy from Harvard in 1937, Doctor Malik continues his academic career with his lectures at The American University in our nation's capital.

Decorated by nations of the East, the Near East and the West for his efforts towards international unity, honored by the most respected universities of America and Europe as a distinguished scholar, Dr. Malik has further won the esteem of his academic and diplomatic associates by the range and depth of his writings in both English and Arabic journals.

Amid a litany of revealing achievements the character of Charles Malik shines most resplendently with the deep and vital evidence of his personal Christian belief. A member of the Greek Orthodox communion, he has long been interested and active in efforts towards religious unity. Two of his many decorations, the Medal of the Holy Sepulchre from the Greek Orthodox Patriarch of Alexandria and the Christian Culture Award from Assumption University in Canada, perhaps best symbolize his labors for the Christian integrity of an ecumenical dialogue.

It is therefore with admiration and pride that Seattle University chooses to confer upon Charles Habib Malik, a most distinguished citizen of an international community, its highest accolade, the degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa.

Academic Costume

The caps, gowns and hoods universally worn by faculties and candidates for degrees at graduating exercises are a costume dating back to the twelfth century. In medieval days the scholars were clerics; the buildings were cold, capes and hoods were required for warmth, and robes of scholars were similar to the cassocks of the clerics.

In the course of years of development, caps with tassels have replaced capes for the head covering, the hooded cape has been modified into the present hood, and the gowns with long flowing sleeves have been redesigned to indicate the character of the degree of the wearer. In 1893, a student movement in the United States endorsed academic apparel as overcoming awkwardness and difference in dress at graduation exercises and resulted in a standardization of academic costume in this country.

The Intercollegiate Code, adopted in 1895, recognizes three styles of gowns: a bachelor's gown, a master's gown, and doctor's gown. The differences in these gowns are mainly in the cut and shape of the sleeves and in the trimming. Hoods are also recognized for each of the above degrees and vary in shape, size and length. The shell of the hood matches the black material of the gown, and is lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The velvet bordering of the hood is of a color indicative of the field of learning to which the degree pertains. The Oxford cap, proper for all degrees, is worn both indoors and outdoors with academic costume. The tassel, worn over the left eye once the degree is conferred, is also symbolic of the degree and conforms to the code of colors for hood trimming. Prior to the actual conferring of the degree the tassel is worn over the right eye. Holders of Doctor's degrees are entitled to wear a gold tassel. The tassel of a bachelor's degree indicates the field in which the degree is granted. The color for each field of learning follows:

Arts and Letters	White	Library Science	Lemon
Theology and Divinity	Scarlet	Education	Ice Blue
Laws	Purple	Forestry	Russet
Philosophy	Blue	Commerce and Finance
Science	Golden Yellow		Olive Drab
Medicine	Green	Engineering	Orange
Dentistry	Lilac	Nursing	Green and White
Veterinary Science	Gray	Physical Education	Sage Green
Fine Arts	Brown	Agriculture	Maize
Music	Pink	Economics	Copper
