Honorary Degrees

JOHN A. CHERBERG

John Cherberg, you are a public servant whose leadership has greatly benefited the citizens of Washington State.

You have been dedicated, tireless and unstinting in your service as Lieutenant Governor of the State of Washington for over 29 years and are now serving in your eighth consecutive term. In the state capitol you are known, in the words of one legislator, for your "wisdom, grace and fairness."

Since 1975 you have promoted goodwill abroad and opened new vistas for international trade with a number of Pacific Rim nations, improving trade and tourism for Washington State.

In addition to your service as chair of the State Senate, you currently chair the Senate Rules Committee, the Joint Legislative Committee on International Trade and Tourism, and serve on the Washington Higher Education Facilities Authority. Without question, it was your personal interest and support which made possible the passage of legislation creating the Facilities Authority, already so beneficial to Seattle University and the other independent universities in the state.

Your multitude of civic accomplishments, charitable acts, and prestigious awards form a living testimonial to your unparalleled service to this state.

Upon you, John A. Cherberg, Seattle University proudly confers the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.

GEORGE TSUTAKAWA

George Tsutakawa, you are a Seattle artist whose wondrous fountains and sculptures have given us unmatched beauty.

As a sculptor, you have integrated formal design with the spontaneity of movement to create a new style that has brought you worldwide renown as the "master of fountains."

Since you received your first fountain sculpture commission more than 25 years ago, you have created what is believed to be a world record total of over 50 major fountains in the United States, Canada and Japan.

Your artistry blends the purifying, healing and peaceful qualities of water with smooth, flowing designs that enhance many different environments.

You have also dedicated your life to sharing your special gifts with others through a teaching career at the University of Washington.

For thousands of people from so many parts of the world, your artistry has been a constant source of joy.

Upon you, George Tsutakawa, Seattle University proudly confers the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

GWENDOLYN BROOKS

Gwendolyn Brooks, you are a poet who has captivated readers with your vision of urban life in our country, enabling them to grasp a new understanding of the city and its people.

As the Consultant in Poetry to the Library of Congress, the first black woman to hold that honor, you bring to the position a fresh perspective and promise not fully explored in years past.

Through readings, workshops, and devoted individual attention, you have encouraged young people, especially minority youth, to explore poetry as an art form and as a way to communicate their feelings and observations.

Your work has been rightfully recognized with many prestigious honors, including the Pulitzer Prize for your book of poems, Annie Allen, two Guggenheim Fellowships, and an American Academy of Arts and Letters Award. Following in the footsteps of Carl Sandburg, you have served as Poet Laureate of your home state of Illinois.

You have used your artistry as a vehicle to express the need for all people to make a commitment to serve society and to work for justice.

Upon you, Gwendolyn Brooks, Seattle University proudly confers the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.
