WENDELL P. LOVELESS

Wendell P. Loveless, in your 36 years as a high school educator you have served as a model for all teachers who dedicate themselves to the growth of students.

Fundamental to Seattle University's success is the education and encouragement students receive during their high school years from dedicated and talented teachers like yourself.

Throughout your career and in your current post as language arts teacher and counselor at Seattle's Cleveland High School, you have touched the lives of many. With equal dedication to all students, you have opened the hearts and minds of young people to the artistry of our language. You have instilled in them a lifelong wonder for the magic of learning.

As one of your colleagues remarked, you "represent all that we as teachers should strive to be."

Upon you, Wendell P. Loveless, as representative of the many contributions made by the high school teachers of our region, Seattle University proudly confers the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

ANN P. WYCKOFF

Ann P. Wyckoff, you are a woman whose generous commitment to making our community a better place to live has enriched us all.

You hold a master's degree in social work from the University of Washington. You have served as a leader for organizations which strive to enhance our region and to strengthen the lives of the people who live here. You are also dedicated to your family, and along with your husband have raised 6 wonderful children who have given you 11 grandchildren.

You have worked to help the disabled as a board member of the Easter Seal Society. You have supported excellence in secondary education through your involvement with Lakeside School. You have worked to aid high school dropouts through your directorship of Educational Clinics, Inc. You have worked to enhance the arts through your support of Bagley Wright Theater and as state chairperson of the Kennedy Center for the Arts.

For many years you have been a dedicated and tireless leader for Seattle University. In 1972 you were named to the University's Board of Regents, a position you held until 1982 when you were appointed to the Board of Trustees. As chair of the University's President's Club, you have fostered a most significant group of supporters for the institution. Your commitment, your support and your belief in Catholic higher education at Seattle University has been of immeasurable benefit to the institution, its faculty and its students. All who have worked with you have found a sensitive, compassionate and caring person. Today, in 1987, Seattle University is truly a better place because of your efforts.

Upon you, Ann P. Wyckoff, Seattle University proudly confers the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

RICHARD A. McCORMICK, S.J.

Richard A. McCormick, S.J., you are a faithful priest and distinguished scholar whose work has been a force in the renewal of contemporary moral theology.

You have long been recognized as one of this country's most reflective and penetrating ethical scholars. Your books and articles illuminate for us critical topics in the areas of social, personal and biomedical ethics. Now, as the John A. O'Brien Professor of Christian Ethics at the University of Notre Dame, you are continuing your work and opening the door to new thoughts about timeless matters.

You have shared your wisdom and touched the lives of countless others through your service in posts such as President of the Catholic Theological Society, Board Member of the Church's Center for Theology and Public Policy, and Member of the Ethical Advisory Board of the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Among your many honors is the Cardinal Spellman Award by the Catholic Theological Society of America as the "Outstanding Theologian of the Year."

You have continued to challenge us within the Catholic Church with your insight and understanding.

Upon you, Richard A. McCormick, S.J., Seattle University proudly confers the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.
