THE NEW MAN

Before our eyes there appeared a new picture (imagine) it was not that of a school or an education . It was Man who arose before me . Man who revealed his true character in his free development ; who demonstrated his greatness when no mental oppression was there to limit his internal work or to weigh down upon his soul .

I maintain therefore that every form of education should base itself on the development of the development of the human personality . Man himself should become the centre of education and it is necessary to bear in mind that man does not develop at the university, but begins his mental development from birth and accomplishes it with the greatest intensity during the first three years of his life and it is to this period more than any other that it is necessary to give a vigilant care. If we act in accordance with this imperative the child far from imposing upon us a fatigue reveals himself as the greatest and most comforting wonder in nature .

We shall find ourselves then in front of the child no longer considered as a being without strength, as an empty vessel to be filled by our wisdom , but his dignity will rise up before ~~us~~ our eyes in proportion as we shall see in him the constructor of our intelligence , as a being who --guided by an interior teacher -- works indefatigably with joy and felicity, according to a precise programme , at the construction of that greatest of all marvels in nature , which is Man. We teachers can only help the work already accomplished as servants who help their master .

We shall become witnesses of the development of the human soul , of the rising up of the New Man , who will not be a victim to
