A TRADITION of
EXCELLENCE

HONORING THE CLASS OF 2020

SEATTLEU

A photograph of students sitting on concrete steps outdoors, some using laptops, with trees and a building in the background. The scene is set on a grassy hillside with a stone wall. Several students are visible, some sitting on the steps and others on the grass. Some are using laptops, while others are talking or looking at their phones. The background shows bare trees and a brick building. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, outdoor learning environment.

MISSION STATEMENT

Seattle University is dedicated to educating the whole person, to professional formation, and to empowering leaders for a just and humane world.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES OF THE CLASS OF 2020

To the 2020 Graduates of Seattle University,

Congratulations to you on your graduation from Seattle University. Please know of our gratitude for having chosen Seattle University for your education and for all that you have contributed in your leadership and service. Thank you for your special contributions and generous spirit in these unusual times of the pandemic. We are a better university for the time you have been here. As I express my gratitude to you, I'm sure you have deep gratitude for your family and friends who have been supportive of you in these years.

It's common at a Commencement ceremony for the speaker to say, "As you go out into the world..." I believe it's important that all students of Seattle University never leave the world they were involved in while they were here. A Seattle University education engages with the most important issues of the world, asks its students to be engaged in the community, promotes internships and preparation for careers and welcomes on its campus people with a depth of experience. An education at Seattle University is an education in being engaged with the world. At this time especially we have such pressing issues in the world, in the pandemic and in committing ourselves to racial equality.

Our intention at Seattle University is expressed in the following statement: "Every Seattle University student will experience an integrated Jesuit education for leadership." We can provide the context and some of the means, but you have needed to fashion your own interpretation for your leadership. We hope it is made up of 1) your academic accomplishment, 2) your social development, 3) your determination of your values and spirituality, and 4) your commitment to service. We count on your leadership in making a "more just and humane world," which is our ultimate mission.

Thank you again for what you have given to Seattle University. Congratulations on your graduation, and I hope that you remain in contact with us and always know you are welcome back here, your home, on campus. We now are proud to look upon you as our alumni.

Sincerely,

Stephen V. Sundborg, S.J.

PRESIDENT

ABOUT SEATTLE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1891, Seattle University is a Jesuit Catholic institution that today is among the most racially and culturally diverse, the most genuinely urban, and the largest multidisciplinary independent university of the Northwest.

Inspired by the Catholic intellectual tradition and the Jesuit philosophy of education, Seattle University forms independent critical thinkers rooted in the humanities and open to finding God in all things.

Responding to the Jesuit imperative that calls for “the service of faith and the promotion of justice,” Seattle University students are challenged to address issues of poverty, injustice, discrimination, violence and environmental degradation with competence, compassion and creativity.

At the heart of every undergraduate, graduate and professional program at Seattle University is an intellectually rigorous education delivered by excellent faculty whose attentiveness as teachers is rivaled only by their commitment to generating new knowledge as scholars. In partnership with their students, Seattle University’s dedicated faculty and their colleagues create a vibrant, educational experience that comes alive in the classroom, campus and community and develops character and leadership.

As SU President Stephen Sundborg, S.J., has often said, “Only the alumni of Seattle University can tell us whether we are fulfilling our mission.” It is through their actions that our alumni most clearly attest to the power of an SU education. They are leaders in banking and business, in publishing and politics, nursing and nonprofits, engineering and education. Today, we welcome our newest graduates into a special group of women and men who are excelling in their professions and working to build a more just and humane world.

UNIVERSITY HONORS PROGRAM

The Seattle University Honors Program was founded in 1958. The two-year cohort program takes an historical approach to the humanities and the social sciences as a way of exploring and critically engaging the depth and breadth of ideas that have shaped human civilization.

The program stresses the integration of knowledge in a vital challenging learning community, embracing the true spirit of Jesuit education. After completing the University Honors Program, students pursue degree requirements in a specific major.

CORE HONORS PROGRAM

The Seattle University Core Honors Program was founded in 2004. By bringing highly motivated students into a cohort group that pursues its Seattle University Core courses together, the Core Honors program permits more advanced study in these courses than would otherwise be possible. In maintaining this cohort over three years of study, Core Honors creates a learning community in which each member contributes to the learning experience of the others.
