Unrestricted Accreditation Granted S.U. for 5 Years

S.U. was granted a five-year unrestricted accreditation by the Northwest Association for the Accreditation of Secondary and Higher Schools, it was announced late yesterday by Fr. John E. Gurr, S.J., academic vice-president.

"WE HAVE BEEN members of this Association and fully accredited since 1937," stated Fr. Gurr. "In 1952, the group decided that all member institutions would be visited and re-accredited by 1960. This was the reason for S.U.'s visit last month."

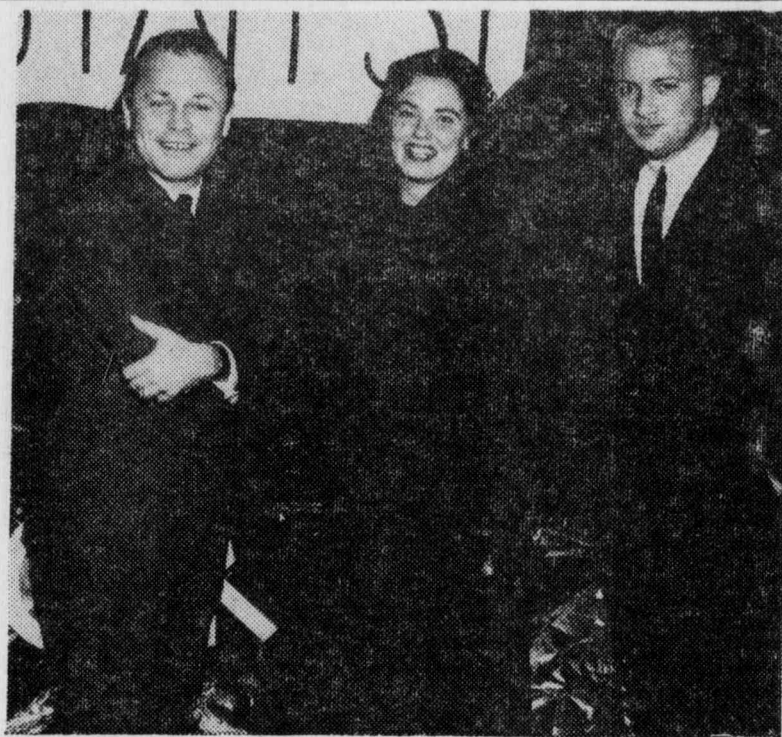

"In some cases," Father added, "the Association grants a 5-10 year unrestricted, but these are not common. The faculty and administration agree," he said, "that the great benefit from accreditation is the process of self-evaluation and self-improvement which it stimulates. They're encouraging an institution to be as strong as possible. Then they do as much as they can to help that institution."

THE ASSOCIATION met at the Davenport Hotel in Spokane from Nov. 29 to Dec. 3. During the meeting of the higher commission, (the one which accredits colleges and universities), the report on S.U.'s accreditation visit was reviewed and the recommendation voted upon.

The Very Rev. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U., was present at the Monday night session.

DETAILED RECOMMENDATIONS made by the visitation committee are taken up with the various departments by Fr. President.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S SHOWERS didn't dampen the spirits of Pep Rally master of ceremonies Bill Muncey, and lovely Miss Washington, Sharon Vaughn. The pair pose with Sonny Norris, Rally co-chairman, just before the start of the annual parade.

Molly Cannon Chosen AWS Girl of Month

MOLLY CANNON

Molly Cannon, 19-year-old nursing major from Spokane, has been chosen AWS Girl of the Month, AWS vice-president Walli Zimmerman announced today. The freshman award-winner was nominated by Mitchell Hall (4th floor, Marycrest).

MOLLY WAS cited for the "outstanding work she has done on all the projects of Mitchell Hall" by floor president Dawn Macauley. Especially noted was Molly's work on the hall scrapbook, the Pep Rally float and her poster work for several campus functions.

MOLLY WILL receive two free dinners at Daverso's and will be presented with the Girl of the Month bracelet.

Social to Climax 'Sister' Program

A cider and doughnut social for all women students, sponsored by the AWS Big-Little Sister program, will be Dec. 6, from 2 to 4 p.m., in the Chieftain Lounge, according to Joan Janssen and Mary Grace LaBuda, co-chairmen.

LINDA DUNI, Vinna Leahy, Nancy Schwab, Karen Wiper, Dawn Macauley and Kathy Brindle are planning the entertainment and refreshments.

Dress for the occasion will be skirts, sweaters and heels.

Isle Style:

Juniors' Holiday Mixer, Dec. 7 Will Fete Hawaiian Cagers

Leis, grass skirts and hula rhythms will help make members of the University of Hawaii basketball team feel right at home at the Hawaiian Holiday Mixer on Dec. 7.

ADMISSION will be 75c stag and $1.25 for couples.

The dance, to be sponsored by the junior class, will be in the Chieftain Lounge following the S.U.-University of Hawaii game. It will feature the live music of Bill Hahn and the Adventurers, state co-chairmen Marge Tokunaga and Oneal McGowan.

THE ISLAND festivities will begin at half-time of the game, when the Hawaiian cagers will be welcomed by S.U. Hawaiian students with leis and hulas.

PRACTICING "ALOHA'S": Marge Tokunaga (5'6½") and Evelyn Racelo (5'2½") adjust a lei on 6'5" Don Ogorek. Elsie Hosokawa (5'2") relies on a "stepladder technique" to reach Tim Cousins (6'8"). The girls are brushing up on Island welcome techniques for the arrival of Hawaii cagers Dec. 7.

Students to Take Editorship Of Alumni Homecoming Book

The student Homecoming committee will edit the winter issue of the alumni magazine, The Chieftain Homecoming co-chairmen Ron Gallucci and Gail Delworth said yesterday. Permission for the project has been given by Fr. Gerard M. Evoy, S.J., vice president for University relations.

THE EXPANDED 12-PAGE ISSUE will be designed as a Homecoming Week souvenir program with pictures, stories and background information on the Week's events and people involved. The magazine will be mailed to the regular 6100 alumni about Jan. 15 and go on sale to students at about the same time, Gallucci said. The Seattle area alumni and the alumni office are bearing the increased cost of the issue.

The price has not been determined. The program will replace the buttons of past years which have contributed about $200 per year to Homecoming's budget.

RAZZ-MA-TAZZ AND ALL THAT JAZZ . . . Don Volta and Linda Duni demonstrate a Charleston step that is the bee's knees for the dance contest at the whiz-bang "Roaring 20's" dance tonight. The cat's pajamas affair will be in the Chieftain from 9 p.m. to midnight . . . 23 skidoo.

Chicago Tribune To Be First Imitation Offering

The Chicago Tribune will be the first newspaper imitated by The Spectator during winter quarter. Jerry Hubbard, sports editor of The Spectator, is directing the crew for the imitation of the Windy City paper. It will come out Jan. 15.

HUBBARD SAID that Jean Merlino and Vinna Leahy are working on the layout and stories of the midwestern daily. From Jan. 15 to March 25, The Spectator will imitate nine of the most representative newspapers in the world. Following the Chicago Tribune imitation, The Spectator will come out in imitation of the San Francisco Examiner, the New York Herald-Tribune, and the New York Times.

THE ANNUAL Homecoming edition of The Spectator is planned for Jan. 29.

The Chicago Tribune, founded in 1847, taken over in 1855

by Joseph Medill, now has a daily circulation over 950,000.

EX-PRESIDENT Harry Truman called it the worst newspaper in the world. Under its nameplate, The Tribune calls itself "The World's Greatest Newspaper."

The Mathematics Proficiency Examinations (placement examinations) will be given Dec. 10, 1959, at 1 p.m., in Room 320 of the Liberal Arts Building. There will be no charge for the examinations.

All students who have not previously taken the examinations and who expect to register for a mathematics course during the Winter Quarter of 1960 will be required to take at least the Basic Algebra test. An obvious exception to the foregoing rule is any student who already has college credit for a college level course in mathematics. Students who fail to take the examination at the above time will be required to take the examination at their own expense at the Counseling and testing Center.

Variety Show Tryouts Set

Tryouts for parts in the Homecoming Variety Show will be Sunday at 2 p.m. in Pigott Auditorium, a committee spokesman said yesterday. Tryouts will consist of dramatic readings only. No prepared acts will be auditioned.

THE SHOW will be directed by Bill Taylor, an S.U. alumnus and a featured player in several Cirque Playhouse productions.

Last year, Taylor appeared with Mercedes McCambridge in "Time of the Cuckoo" and has also been seen in "Stalag 17" and "My Three Angels."

A Phi's Schedule Pre-Finals Dance

"Don't Sweat the Small Things," the final dance of the year, will be Dec. 11, 9 p.m. to midnight, in the Chieftain Cafeteria. Sponsored by A Phi O, the dance will be "the last chance to relax before final exams."

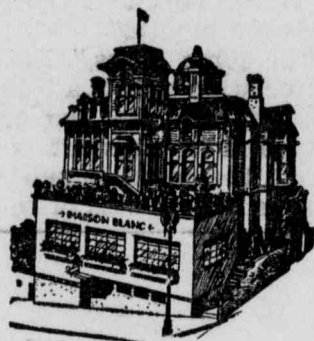

JUNIOR LARRY Goodman and his 13-piece band will provide the music. The band members are all S.U. students. Admission will be 75c stag and $1.25 for couples. A door prize will be given.

Dance chairmen are: Lee Eberhardt, Jerry Lavell, Gene Hogan, John McGuire and Jerry Dinndorf.

THERE'S AN IMPORTANT FUTURE AHEAD FOR THE MEN WHO WEAR THESE WINGS

The Air Force pilot or navigator is a man of many talents. He is, first of all, a master of the skies—and no finer exists. In addition, he has a firm background in astro-navigation, electronics, engineering and allied fields. Then, too, he must show outstanding qualities of leadership, initiative and self-reliance. In short, he is a man eminently prepared for an important future in the new Age of Space. Find out today if you can qualify as an Air Force pilot or navigator. Sodality to Assist At Holyday Mass

On the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Dec. 8, the Central Council of the Sodality, consisting of all officers of the Sodality and all committee chairmen, will assist at the 9 a.m. Mass at St. James' Cathedral.

Following Mass, there will be an open meeting of the Central Council in the Chieftain. "All student body officers, students and Sodalists are invited and encouraged to join with the Sodality leaders in honoring the Patroness of S.U. on her Feast," stated Dan Zim- sen, Sodality prefect.

Veteran U.W. Journalist To Offer Course at S.U.

A former director of the School of Journalism at the University of Washington, Vernon McKenzie, will teach his well known "Contemporary Affairs" course at S.U. this winter quarter.

ACCORDING TO S.U. officials, McKenzie's course will be offered at 11 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays in the education seminar room in the Pigott Building.

McKenzie has worked on 11 newspapers, in the United States and Canada, and was editor of MacLean's magazine from 1920 to 1926. The author of four books, he was director of the then School of Journalism at the University of Washington from 1928 to 1943. He was a professor of journalism there until 1958 when he became professor emeritus.

McKENZIE, former president of the American Schools and Departments of Journalism, said his S.U. course will attempt to show students how to discover the significant items in the world news. A feature of the course will be an assignment in which students attempt to prepare in advance a copy of the New York Times weekly news survey. They work on the assignment on Friday and Saturday and check results when the Sunday Times reaches Seattle.

Professor McKenzie is an authority on propaganda. He has served as advisor to the war department and to the state department.

HIS FIRST S.U. class will meet Jan. 7.

"On the Waterfront"

Marlon Brando and Eva Marie Saint will star in "On The Waterfront" at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 6. The Academy Award-winning film is sponsored by Interhall Council, according to Judy Lawler, president, and will be shown in Pigott Auditorium. Admission will be 35 cents.

Editorial:To Think . . .

Thinking is responsible for all the evils in the world. Wilhelm Roentgen used to sit up nights, thinking. Look how dangerous he made life for X-ray technicians. Pasteur thought overtime. People have been punctured ever since. The Wright brothers brought about airplane crashes. The thinkers, themselves, have suffered. Socrates was given a glass of hemlock to immortalize him sooner.

THINKING CAN TAKE insidious forms. One way to recognize it is when, for instance, a discussion about an impending railroad strike slips out of the "how inconvenient" class, into the realm of principles and analyses. Or, it can take the fatiguing form of challenging and exploring the great ideas of past and present—theories, causes, philosophies, trends.

One way to avoid thinking is to use small talk. Keep things on a light, superficial level. Avoid the classics—and especially philosophy. Read only the funnies. Give yourself a glance at sports and social pages of the daily paper. Shun international news and editorials. You might find thoughts there.

YOU PAY YOUR tuition to get facts. You shouldn't be expected to get ideas from them.

Come to think of it, why go to college?

'Non-Affidavit' Colleges Championed by Student

Dear Editor:

We are no Harvard or Yale. Univocal thinking permeates the article, "They Cry Freedom." The editor presupposes that Harvard, Yale, and 14 other colleges are unpatriotic because they refused government subsidies demanding loyalty affidavits from the recipients. Why doesn't the government compel other subsidized groups such as farmers and businessmen to swear such pledges? What purpose do these forced oaths of allegiance serve? Is the government so ingenuous that it supposes oaths will suppress subversion? The writer's failure to investigate and evaluate the motives and details in this issue reveals a naive, if not juvenile, approach to journalism. The intrusion of such a nebulous, undefined concept as freedom into the argument clouds the issue and mars the efficacy of the editorial. Snide remarks about the integrity of such eminent teachers as A. Whitney Griswold of Yale and Nathan M. Pusey of Harvard disclose the ignorance and arrogance of the writer. Finally, the editor, with her back to the wall, appeals to the mob for support: "Would it burden your conscience to sign such an oath? Would you feel it was an infringement on your freedom?" Such chauvinism and cheap rhetoric are the last refuges of the desperate.

Had the editor done any research on this topic, she would have discovered that St. Johns College of Maryland also rejected the controversial federal aid. Would such an outstanding Catholic college ally itself with any insidious movement?

Hats Off To The Men's Headwear

By JUDY KING

Hats, hats everywhere . . . and not a girl in sight!

AS THE Pacific Ocean condenses into piles of humidity and pours itself upon Seattle, colorful bonnets blossom on the S.U. campus. Humiliating as it may be to the ideal of American manhood, the originators of these "humidity hats" are . . . boys.

THE TIME of retribution is at hand . . . or on the head, any way you want to look at it.

There are three general classes of drenched felt bobbing around campus, plus a few individualists who defy the trend and maintain their dignity, if not their coiffures.

MR. MAN Around Campus' plays it casual with a smashed khaki turban that looks like a hold-over from a Jungle Jim movie. The finishing touch is the plaid hatband that peeks jauntily through the rolled-up brim—that incidentally stays rolled up despite all scientific theories that what goes up must come down.

The "Man About Town" looks like he stepped from Sports Illustrated—the mountain-climbing section. Every time he opens his mouth the sound is half yodel. The green felt Alpine topper is completed with the colorful feathers of some dead bird, tied on with a red cloth. The cosmopolitan look is achieved, but the birds may never recover.

THE THIRD category are the hold-overs from the Roarin' 50's-57's . . . the Ivy League look. The plaids are more subdued, but the buckle is the same. The individualists in this class wear the brim up, causing a double stream of water to pour down just under the nose, but the "look" is achieved.

So completes the picture of the practical, sensible male. The whole thing just goes to prove the old adage, "If the hat fits . . . wear it!"

Campus Cultural Level Lag? Bordeaux Girls Plan Cure

By LORI MILLS

"Bongo Drum Mass" from Africa, Mohammedan Mosque Music, the modern Gellineau Psalms have been taped for a Soiree in the quest for a cultural renewal on S.U. campus.

THE APPARENT lack of class time for any discussion on various sidelights of culture have jelled some into an intellectual stagnancy. The Chieftain, some say, is not the place for the real stimulus guiding one into the intellectual realm, but a place for social activities and lunch.

Pros and cons will always filter through any smoke-filled room but this time a group has decided to do something about the intellectual quest of students outside of the Chieftain and the classroom.

SUNDAY EVENING at Bordeaux from 7 to 9 p.m. will be set aside for a communal discussion of primitive and modern music in relation to race and religion.

Fr. E. Axer, S.J., and Fr. A. Bischoff, S.J., have been asked to "lend a hand" in guiding the conversation. Fr. Axer has stressed the point that a little pre-reading or experience would brighten the discussion and leave the discussion purely on the student level.

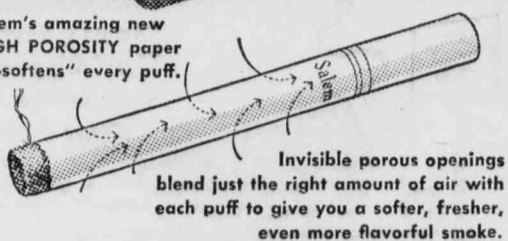

SINCE THE Soiree is informal, pots of coffee, snacks and large ash-trays will be available to anyone who would like to attend.

If any question arises as to the Soiree, Jan Mallen, Bordeaux Hall president, may be contacted at EA 3-9894 or Fr. Axer at Loyola Hall.

Chief Rally Fails in Final Seconds

ing section whoop it up just before the game started. (3) TEN BASKETBALLERS and 3,865 fans were all eyes as S. U. began its season with the tipoff of the Utah State game. Tim Cousins and Tyler Wilbon spring for the casaba while Dave Mills, Don Piasecki and Cornell Green (Utah-24) move for position.

By GENE ESQUIVEL

A smooth functioning Utah State squad out-classed S. U. in its season opener 85-73 last night at the Civic Auditorium before 3,865 fans.

THE AGGIES gave a strong indication that they were "playing for keeps" by quickly moving into the lead which they kept a strong hold on throughout the fray.

The Chiefs caught fire with four minutes left when they poured in eight points, but an air-tight Aggie defense quelled the threat. S. U. was down 22 points at the time, then whittled their deficit to seven points with little more than a minute left.

LITTLE MAX PERRY was the sparkplug that ignited the Aggies' victory. His sharp passing, deadly jump shots and drives hampered the Chiefs from striking distance throughout the evening. Perry was high point man for Utah State with 22 digits.

Big Don Ogorek topped all scorers with 30 points. He picked off 18 rebounds.

A BAD CASE of first game jitters kept S. U. from scoring until five minutes into the first half. The Chiefs came within a deuce after three successive field goals by Don Piasecki.

The half ended with the Aggies holding a 38-32 command.

The second half saw a nip and tuck contest with the Chiefs again within two points, 44-42. The Aggies proceeded to pump in nine straight points—a lead which they never relinquished until 1:13 left in the game when Ogorek hit a jump shot to make the score 78-71. The ensuing seconds saw rock-and-sock play with neither team being able to make much headway.

ALL BUT ONE of the Utah State starters hit in double figures. Top rebounder for the Aggies was Tyler Wilbon with 14. S. U. led Utah State in team rebounds, 40-31.

The Aggies hit better than 50% of their shots from the floor during the game. S. U. tallied on only 30% of its attempts.

THE S. U. FROSH emerged victorious with a 74-58 win over Olympic J. C. in the preliminary. Prep all-American Eddie Miles sparked the Papooses with 23 points. Other leading scorers were Jim Dynes 16 and Paul Plunkett, 13.

Chieftain's Schedule Busy

The S.U. Chiefs take on the University of Hawaii Rainbows at 8 p.m., Monday in Civic Auditorium. They play the same team at 8 p.m. on Tuesday at the Everett High School gymnasium.

The Rainbows appear to be much stronger than the team of last year. They have received two transfers to help out last year's ace Tony Davis, a 6-9 center. These are 6-7 Garry Dougan, a strong rebounder and an alert defensive player, and 6-5 Gene Yarbrough.

THE CHIEFS will journey to Portland Dec. 12 to tangle with the Coyotes from South Dakota. They will play in the first game of a doubleheader at Portland International Pavilion. Idaho will meet Portland in the second game.

The freshman squad will also be in action in the coming week, when they meet Everett J.C. at Civic Auditorium, Dec. 7, at 6 p.m.

Golfers End First Round

The skies opened up long enough to permit the S.U. divot-diggers to complete the first round of the proposed four-round elimination individual golf tournament. Pat Molitor defeated Pat O'Neill, while Eddie Pearsall downed Dave Robinson.

ENTERING THE quarter-finals Dave Uhlman will meet Gary Galbreath, Pat Molitor tangles with Bryan Copp, and Eddie Pearsall clashes with De-Ross Kinkade.

One match has already been played in the quarter-final bracket. Pete Carlozzi over-powered tournament favorite Billy Warner with a 7 and 5 victory. Carlozzi will play the winner of the Pearsall-Kinkade match.

Results of best-ball matches are not available at this time. Three of the matches were expected to be played by the end of the week.

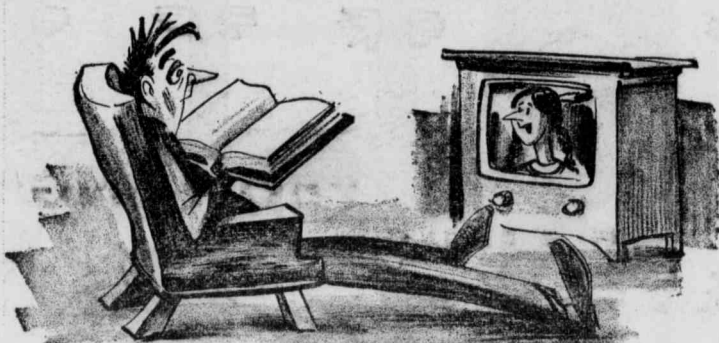

TV OR NOT TV

The academic world has made its first tentative steps into television—a few lectures, a few seminars, a few lab demonstrations—but colleges have not yet begun to use television's vast capacity to dramatize, to amuse, to stir the senses, to unshackle the imagination. Like, for example, the following:

ANNOUNCER: Howdy, folksies. Well, it's time again for that lovable, laughable pair, Emmett Twonkey Magruder, Ph. D., and Felicia May Crimscott, M.A., in that rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101... And here they are—the team that took the "hiss" out of "history"—Emmett Twonkey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott!

DR. MAGRUDER: Howdy, folksies. A funny thing happened to me on the way to my doctorate. A mendicant approached me and said, "Excuse me, sir, will you give me 25 cents for a sandwich?" and I replied, "Perhaps I will, my good man. Let me see the sandwich."

"What-um You-um Want-um?"

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh, how droll, Dr. Magruder! How delicious! You're a regular Joe Penner!... But enough of badinage. Let us turn to our rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101.

DR. MAGRUDER: Today we will dramatize the taut and tingling story of John Smith and Pocahontas. I will play Captain Smith and Miss Magruder will play Pocahontas.

ANNOUNCER: But first a message from our sponsor... Folksies, have you tried Alpine Cigarettes yet? Have you treated yourself to that fresh filtration, that subtle coolness, that extra-long, extra-efficient filter? Have you? Hmmm? ... If not, wake your tobacconist and get some Alpines at once! ... And now to our grim and gripping story. Picture, if you will, a still summer night. An Indian maid stands by a moonlit brook. Suddenly she hears a footstep behind her. She turns...

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh! John Smith! You-um startle-um me-um!

DR. MAGRUDER: Howdy, Pocahontas. What are you doing by the brook?

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Just washing out a few scalps. But what-um you-um want-um?

DR. MAGRUDER: I came to see the Chief.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: You-um can't-um. Chief is leaving for Chicago.

DR. MAGRUDER: On what track?

ANNOUNCER: And speaking of tracks, stay on the right track with Alpines—the track that leads straight to smoking pleasure, to fun, to frolic, to sweet content... And now back to those two gassers, Emmett Twonkey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott.

DR. MAGRUDER: Well, folksies, that's all for today. See you next week, same time, same channel.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Stay tuned now for "William Cullen Bryant—Girl Intern."

ANNOUNCER: And remember, folksies, there was a time when you needed to smoke two cigarettes to get what you get from one Alpine—one cigarette for light menthol, one for high filtration. Today you can get it all in a single Alpine, which means you no longer have to go around smoking two cigarettes at a time, causing your friends to snigger, and violating the fire laws.

Fall Bowling Ends Dec. 10

Intramural bowling at S.U. winds up its fall season next Thursday. The IGP's currently lead the league with a 24½-7½ mark as of action yesterday. The Sad Sac's and Toulouse's Terrors are tied for second with a 22-10 won-lost record.

FR. REBHAHN, S.J., surged ahead of Sandy Sturrock for the first time this season with an overall average of 178. Sturrock's overage is 176 and Mark Hanses is close behind with 175.

High individual kegglers of the day were Fr. Logan, S.J., high series at 566 and Andy Mirkovich high game, 214. Next week the IGP's meet the Elbow Benders, Sac Sac's face the Three G's and Toulouse's Terrors tangle with the Rock n' Rollers.

Volleyball Tourney Entries End Today

The deadline for entries into the intramural volleyball jamboree is this afternoon at 4:30. Entries may be turned in to Pigott 561 or to John Kootnekoff.

The jamboree will take place Dec. 7 and 11 from 12:15 to 1:45 p.m. in the gym.

Pre-tournament favorite thus far is the powerful faculty entry.

SKIERS TO POW WOW
The S.U. Ski Club will gather at 8 p.m., Dec. 8, in LA 319.

Don Volta, publicity director, disclosed that plans for a winter carnival and for ski instructions will be discussed. A ski movie is also on the agenda.

League Champions Dominate Grid All-Star Selections

The "59" all-star teams from the National and American Leagues in intramural football are dominated by the champions of the respective leagues. Syndicate, of the American, has five players representing them on the all-star squad and the South Side has four on the National all-stars.

Hear About 'Elg'?

He's Back in Town

Elgin Baylor, the man who kept professional basketball in Minneapolis, and Dolph Schayes, the indefatigable 12-year-veteran from Syracuse, will match talents next Wednesday at 8 p.m. when Minneapolis and Syracuse tangle at the University of Washington Pavilion.

THE GAME, a regular season National Basketball Association tilt, was arranged through the efforts of Greater Seattle, Inc.

Baylor led S.U. to the runner-up spot in the NCAA tournament in March of 1958.

THE FOLLOWING year, the 6-5 all-American joined a nearly submerged Laker team. In the course of a 1750-point season, Baylor put the team back on the surface financially, and rallied it to a second-place finish in the eight-team pro circuit.

After missing a number of games this season because of a flu attack, Baylor returned to action Tuesday night. He scored four points in the last 18 seconds of play to give the Lakers a 103-100 victory over New York.

JOHN CASTELLANI, who coached the versatile Laker star at S.U., is now directing Minneapolis. His club also includes Larry Faust, 6-9 veteran, and rookie Tom Hawkins, an all-American from Notre Dame.

Athletic sports director Bill Sears announced Tuesday that 600 reserve section tickets for the game are now on sale at the S.U. ticket office in the gymnasium.

THE SEATS—$3.50 each—are located east of the press box in the lower section.

In providing the block of tickets, Greater Seattle is hoping to secure a rooting section for "Baylor and Co."

A Phi O Slates Used Texts Sale

Alpha Phi Omega will sponsor a used book sale beginning the first two weeks of Winter Quarter.

Co-chairmen Larry McHugh and Rich Norheim state that students may turn in their books to A Phi O. The Club will sell them for the students, at their own stated prices.

The book sale will centralize used book exchange on campus and eliminate the burden of individual bargaining and handling.

Nurses to Give Christmas Party

The Providence School of Nursing will give their annual party for children of families receiving medical care through Providence Clinic, Dec. 9 at 2:30 p.m., in Providence Hall Auditorium.

EACH CHILD will receive a gift from Dr. "Santa" Haffley. All the gifts were donated by the S.U. nursing students.

Mr. Christopher Di Julio will perform magic tricks for the children.

CO-CHAIRMEN for the event are Mary June Morrison, Andrea Hudert and Jo Ann Forcier.

Others working on committees are Virginia Blanc and Sharon Miller, decorations; Sister Marian James and Mary Ann Cox, entertainment; Nancy Shaffer and Janet Ryan, refreshments; Marnie Stocker, invitations; Marilyn Sylvester, cleanup.

ROTC Honorary Initiates Eleven

Scabbard and Blade, ROTC scholarship honorary, initiated 11 new members Tuesday.

A national society of advanced cadets, members must maintain at least 3.0 in military courses and 2.0 in academic courses.

Art League Plans Christmas Sale

The S.U. Art League will sponsor a Christmas Sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Dec. 10, in the Chieftain Lounge.

Articles for the annual sale, under the direction of co-chairmen Mrs. B. Bader and Mrs. C. J. Mentrin, will include cookies, candies, Christmas decorations, and a unique "white elephant" table.

Radio-TV

S.U. will offer a Radio and Television Speech course Winter Quarter. The course, taught by Mr. James R. Warren, station manager of KTW, is an introductory course to all types of radio and television speech.

The 5-hour course will include proper microphone and tape recording techniques, along with frequent trips to local radio and television stations.

Journalists Signed to Speak On 'Newspaper Today' Series

"The Newspaper Today" will be discussed by 10 prominent Northwest newsmen in a series of evening lectures at S.U.

SPONSORED BY the journalism department, the talks are open to the public. They will be given in the Pigott Building on 10 successive Tuesday evenings in Winter Quarter.

"The general purpose of the series," the Rev. Francis J. Greene, S.J., journalism head, said, "is to give a brief but broad idea of the newspaper today from those who are successfully working in the profession."

HE SAID THE University hopes that these lectures will present an honest picture of the present newspaper position, that they will help people become better readers, and that they may help some to decide whether or not to enter the newspaper field.

The general lecture topic will be "The Newspaper Today . . . as seen by those who put it out."

THE SPEAKERS, dates and topics are:

Jan. 12—Berne S. Jacobsen, city editor, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, "as seen by the City Editor."

Jan. 19—Ed Guthman, reporter, Seattle Times, "as seen by a Pulitzer Prize winning reporter."

Jan. 26—Stan Patty, reporter, Seattle Times, "as seen by a foreign correspondent."

Feb. 2—Nard Jones, chief editorial writer,

Seattle Post-Intelligencer, "as seen by the editorial writer."

Feb. 9—Georg N. Meyers, Sports Editor, Seattle Times, "as seen by the Sports Editor."

Feb. 16—Eleanor Bell, reporter, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, "as seen by the woman reporter."

Feb. 23—Emmett Watson, columnist, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, "as seen by the columnist."

March 1—Dorothy Brant Brazier, Society Editor, Seattle Times, "as seen by the Society Editor."

March 8—Murlin Spencer, Associated Press Bureau Chief, "as seen by the wire service bureau chief."

March 15—Garrison Evans, president Washington Newspaper Publishers Association and co-publisher of Sedro Woolley Courier-Times, "as seen by the weekly publisher."

The lectures will be between 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. on Tuesdays. The series may be taken for credit. Those who attend for credit will turn in a brief report on each talk and will take an examination on the series at the conclusion. There is no charge for those who attend not for credit.

THE SPEAKERS will allow between 15 and 30 minutes for questions from the audience.

Korean Student Attends Nat'l Young Demo Meet

Keum Chu Pak, an S.U. junior from Seoul, Korea represented the Young Democrats of the State of Washington at a National Young Democrats' Convention in Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 17-22.

KEUM CHU, better known on campus as Kathy, was sent to the convention, held at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Toledo, as a foreign student observer to promote international understanding.

The convention mainly dealt with the coming 1960 elections. Officers of the National Young Democrats were elected.

KATHY MET former President Harry S. Truman and presented him with a Korean-made serving tray as a token of her personal appreciation. In turn, Mr. Truman extended his personal regards for the president of Korea, Syngman Rhee.

She also met Governor Mennen Williams of Michigan, to whom she referred to as "a soapy man." The reason for this title as she states is, "He's really the soap of all those Mennen shaving products."

KATHY WAS one of eight delegates from the state of Washington. The Washington Young Demos did a bit of public relations work for the state by distributing to other delegates 20 bushels of Delicious apples, 500 Douglas fir seedlings and 100 ceramic Indian symbols.

Kathy sent reports of the convention back to a Korean magazine, for which she writes, the "Shin Tai Yang" ("Young Sun").

Sister Formation To Hear Address

"The Role of the Active Religious in the Modern World" will be the topic discussed by Miss Anita Yourglic of the Sociology Department with members of the College of Sister Formation at an informal meeting Dec. 13.

"THE PROFESSIONAL world for which you are being trained is our (non-religious) world and the question is—Can you fit into it?" Miss Yourglic will ask the Sisters.

Religious and lay expectations for the role of a sister who is a teacher, nurse or social worker can often come in conflict. Miss Yourglic plans to show what the lay expectations are from her experiences as a lecturer to many parent-teacher groups around Seattle.

What Makes Pop Corn Pop?

Popping corn contains water. When the water gets hot enough, the kernel explodes. Result: popcorn.

We're not passing this information along as a public service. Actually we're up to the same old game.

You see, popcorn makes most people thirsty. Fortunately, when most people get thirsty they hanker for the good taste of Coca-Cola.

Wouldn't you like some popcorn right now?
C'mon now, wouldn't you?

Brown's Veto, Senate Vote Deny Faculty Membership

The Student Senate failed to override a veto by ASSU President Sam Brown which denies non-voting Senate membership to two faculty members. The membership had been voted earlier to Fr. Robert J. Rebhahn, S.J., and Fr. William J. Gill, S.J.

Brown explained at the Sunday meeting that he felt the membership was useless, that the Senate is primarily for students and that it was advisable to have the priests at the meetings for advice and recommendations, but not for opinions.

IN DISAGREEING with Brown, several senators said that non-voting membership would pay tribute to the faculty members, would keep the meetings running smoothly and would expedite all matters at the meetings.

A 7-4 vote to override the veto was not sufficient. A two-thirds majority is necessary.

BROWN LATER OUTLINED the following projects of the ASSU: to obtain special transit rates for college students; to contact a bus which would come to the campus for voting registration early in January; to discuss with the administration ASSU plans requesting the former to finance half of a proposed Parent's Weekend booklet; to draft a letter to Gov. Albert D. Rosellini requesting his presence at the S.U.-Hawaii game.

No further details or actions were mentioned on the projects.

STUDENT COUNSEL Mike Ritch presented a report following an investigation recommended by the Senate. Points clarified included: that there was an ASSU constitutional by-law stating the Senate must meet once every seven days; that the ASSU president can appoint personal representatives but they must be approved by the Senate, an action which has not been taken; that the ASSU Constitution does not state that the newly approved tax revision is legal, and therefore it must go to the Judicial Board.

On the second point, a motion was approved that personal representatives shall cease to hold office until names, submitted in writing to the Senate, are approved.

IN OTHER ACTION: The Judicial Board was directed to investigate and evaluate the student government and report their findings May 27, 1960. This motion was proposed by Senator Elissa Eberhart through the ASSU president's recommendation and passed 8-2 with one abstention.

In financial matters, ASSU Treasurer Ed Nystrom distributed copies of the 1959-60 estimated budget which listed income at $5,285, and expenses at $4,827. The surplus would lower the present ASSU deficit to $715.

Sodalists to Collect Rosaries for Mission

A "Rosaries for South America" project will be launched this week by Our Lady's Committee of the Sodality, according to Tom Hemmen, committee chairman. The project is in answer to a recent nationwide appeal by Fr. Patrick Peyton, C.S.C., founder and director of the Family Rosary Crusade.

BROKEN AND used rosaries will be collected to be repaired and used in Fr. Peyton's missionary work in South America.

To facilitate the collection, boxes will be provided for students on the second floor of the Student Union Building, near the student chapel, and at Marycrest and Xavier Halls.

THE BASIS of Fr. Peyton's work is showing educational films designed to teach South Americans the truths of the Catholic Faith and how to pray the rosary.

COFFEE HOUR

A coffee hour scheduled by Providence Hall students will be Dec. 7, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m., in the Providence lounge.

Homemade cakes and coffee will be served.

Students and faculty members are invited.

Title Needed For New Text

Fr. James Royce, S.J., having completed the manuscript for a new textbook on the Philosophy of Man, is opening a contest to name the book.

THE BOOK, treating with the philosophy of human nature with a view of coordination with modern psychology, will be published by the McGraw-Hill Company next summer.

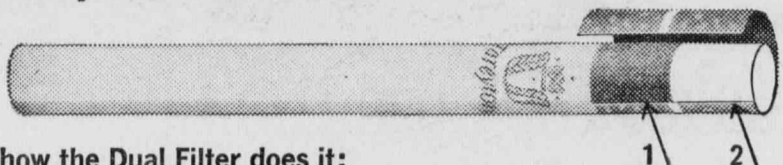

Titles should be short and attractive and submitted either to The Spectator or to Fr. Royce before the end of the quarter.

AN AUTOGRAPHED copy of the book will be presented to the person presenting the winning title.
