Library Contract Assembly Topic

Ten a.m. classes will be cancelled Monday for a general student body meeting in the gym. A final student-faculty discussion of plans for the proposed library will be the major issue on the meeting's agenda.

Dave Irwin, ASSU president, stressed the importance of student understanding of the pledge contract in order that the general election on Tuesday be an actual representation of student opinion.

THE VERY REV. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U., Fr. Gerard M. Evoy, S.J., vice president in charge of University relations, and Irwin will give specific details concerning the tentative structural plans of the library and the student obligation toward its financing. Irwin will also give a breakdown of the $25 student activity fee.

Other plans for the meeting include the announcement of Alpha Sigma Nu pledges by President Gary Haggard and an address by Mr. Timothy J. Healy, professor of engineering at S.U. Mr. Henry T. Ivers, member of the S.U. board of regents, will be a special guest at the meeting.

Nine a.m. classes will be dismissed at 9:50 a.m. and 11 a.m. classes are scheduled as usual.

Fr. Conway Returns From 9-Library Tour

By RANDY LUMPP

Fr. Vincent Conway, S. J., librarian at S.U., has just returned from a 21-day, idea-getting tour of school libraries in the East and Midwest. The schools that he visited included Creighton, Detroit, Loyola, John Carroll, Duquesne, Princeton, and Scranton Universities, and King's and Wilkes colleges. He also visited various library equipment houses to get ideas for library furnishings.

FATHER CITED three libraries, those of Creighton, Scranton, and John Carroll, which were generally best suited to the situation at S.U. He stated that the John Carroll library had the most to offer as far as S.U. is concerned.

One consideration he noted was the importance of getting as much light as possible into the library. Among the more impressive features he saw were air-conditioning, rooms for small study groups, smoking, music listening, and facilities for visual aids and microfilms. In regard to lounges, Fr. Conway explained that "a lounge as referred to in the library is not like a lounge as in the Chieftain."

WHILE S.U. will not copy the library of any other school, "our library will incorporate all or nearly all of the desirable elements found in the libraries I visited," Father said.

Commenting on his work on plans for interior arrangement, he stressed that planning a library as a whole is a long-term project. Many revisions and additions are made before the final plans are selected.

HE PLANS to have posters with some of the floor plans of the buildings he toured prepared to display on campus by next week.

Concerning plans to have a turnstile at the exit, Father quipped, "Modern libraries are now being equipped with turnstiles. You can't get out unless they press the button."

New Election Rule Requires Transcript at Time of Filing

A new regulation for filing for student body office was announced this week appointed election board co-ordinator.

Reynolds replaces Wally Toner who resigned from the position to run for office.

The new regulation states that students planning to run for office must present their current transcript at the time of filing. The rule is being initiated to simplify and accelerate filing procedures.

Reynolds replaced Wally office-seekers don't have a current transcript, they should obtain one from the registrar's office.

Filings for ASSU and A.W.S. offices will open Tuesday and run through Friday, Reynolds said. The hours will be from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., daily.

The ASSU positions open for filing are president, 1st and be the same except for one point. Men students who have been placed on the ROTC's permanent exemption list will not be required to have their adviser's slip signed by that department. ROTC cadets and all other men students will have to see the ROTC department.

Registration numbers will be assigned until March 9, Miss Lee said.

Seniors, juniors and sophomores will begin registering by assigned number at 8:30 a.m., Monday, March 26. Any member of those classes who does not have a number may register from 2:30-3 p.m. Freshmen will begin registration at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, March 27. Those without numbers may register at 10:45 a.m.

Pledge Vote Up Tuesday

Tuesday, students will vote on the library initiative. Voting will be from 7:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Chieftain and L.A. Bldg., Mike Reynolds, election board co-ordinator, said.

Additional voting will be from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Chieftain and at Marycrest, he said. There will be additional voting tables set up at noon in the Chieftain to handle the peak voting period.

The initiative reads: "I approve of the proposed contract between the students of S.U. and the University administration for the purpose of building a new library."

At least 750 students must vote to pass the initiative and of that number a simple majority must be in favor. Student body cards will be required for voting.

The results of the voting will be announced in next Wednesday's Spectator.

Nominations Open For Ski Club Queen

The S.U. Ski Club will be accepting nominations for a queen for its outing to Timberline Lodge, March 21 to 25.

Any S.U. coed may be nominated, Lee Eberhardt, publicity director, said. The Ski Club will make the final choice of a queen and 2 princesses, he said. Nominations should be made at the ASSU office. The deadline is March 2.

The queen and princesses will reign over the S.U. celebrations at Timberline Lodge, Mt. Hood, Ore.

IN THE PAST, Eberhardt said, the Winter Carnival was sponsored at Timberline. The carnival, which S.U. and other Northwest schools attended, was moved to Bend, Ore. This is too far for S.U. students to go, he said.

To replace the carnival, S.U. is sponsoring this trip to Timberline for S.U. students. The cost for the outing will be $6.50 per day which includes lodging and tow fees. This is a reduced price, Eberhardt said.

The Timberline trip activities will include skiing and swimming races, dancing and free ski instructions.

The Ski Club will meet at 8 p.m., Tuesday, in Pigott auditorium to make plans for the trip. A style show will also be presented.

Inter-college Conference Open to S.U. Students

By LINDA MADDEN

S.U. will host the College Council for the United Nations conference tomorrow. M.U.N. groups from 45 colleges have been invited.

S.U. students may attend the discussions free of charge and may register either from noon to 1 p.m., today in the Chieftain or any time tomorrow in the Chieftain lounge. Student prices for the meals are $2 for the banquet, tomorrow night, and $1 for the luncheon and coffee breaks. The conference will begin at 9 a.m. in the Chieftain lounge with registration and a reception.

HIGHLIGHTING the conference will be three speakers. Joseph Schiebel, 1958 secretary general of the M.U.N., will speak on the value and purpose of the M.U.N. at 10:30 a.m. in Bannan auditorium. Warren Mitchell, regional CCUN chairman, will speak at the luncheon on what students can do about international questions. The banquet speaker will be Dr. Charles Martin, past president of the American Society of International Law. His topic will be "Law in the International Community."

Also on the agenda are committee meetings to give delegates practice in making and passing resolutions. The committees correspond to the committees of the U.N.

DURING THE AFTERNOON, there will be round-table discussions on the Congo, underdeveloped Latin American countries, the India-Goa conflict, and the French-Algerian problem. Foreign students from some of the countries to be discussed will attend the meeting.

Vote 'Yes' Tuesday

Tuesday, the students must decide whether they want a new library—now! S.U. can have a new library by the fall of 1963 if the students vote "yes" on the initiative for the student building contract.

Considering all the details, The Spectator feels that a "yes" vote would be the best decision students could make.

THE CONTRACT would be in effect "for a permanent period." Within the permanent pledge contract is an explicit pledge for the new library.

The pledge states that S.U. students will give $800,000 plus interest (the total not to exceed $1,650,000) over a 38-year period for the library.

After the 38 years, or upon fulfillment of the pledge, the students and the administration will decide what the money will be used for.

The contract would increase the present building pledge from $3 to $6 or an annual increase to each student of $9.

Even the $72 maximum cost over a four-year period seems cheap if only for an open-stack library. But besides having open stacks, the new five-story building would house an additional 200,000 volumes, plus other special rooms for intellectual activity. In short, the library would provide our campus with a much-needed intellectual center.

THE DECISION to build a new library is in our hands. The need for the library is evident and the increased financial cost per student is small when compared with the advantages of a new library.

Let's vote and vote "yes" Tuesday.

Letters to the Editor:

Spectator Criticized For 'Cynical' Stands

Dear Editor:

I would like to make the following comments about some things that were printed in Wednesday's Spectator.

To make the record clear, I would like to state that I'm a senator, but not a Spirit. I feel that the ASSU is a most important part of one's existence at S.U., and that it shouldn't be made the butt of some "cynical critic's" own personal opinion. Every Wednesday, I pick up the paper to see the very "accurate reporting" of The Spectator staff and it turns my insides.

FIRST: Mr. Verharen, the senate reporter, did not report last Sunday's senate meeting correctly. He left out the fact that Sen. Reynolds had been appointed election board co-ordinator after the resignation of Wally Toner.

His mention of the letters that the senate had supposedly received in protest to the Spirits was incorrect. When I went to the senate meeting, Sunday, I was only aware of the letters that had come from the team, Mr. Cazzetta and one protest letter.

This letter was the only letter of protest that the senate heard all night long. During the meeting, different senators spoke about other letters that had been received in protest to reserved seating for the Spirits.

THE PEOPLE that had protests should have been at the senate meeting personally so they could have spoken, or have sent a letter to the senate in protest. As a result, if there is any protest to be made, it should be made by the senate for biased and false reporting by The Spectator.

Before I voted, I weighed the evidence that had been PRESENTED, and finding more people for the Spirits than against them, I felt they deserved a section at the games.

SECOND: I find that the editorial of Wednesday's paper made the same mistake in regard to the letters as the senate report did.

This editorial also asks some questions. It is again my feeling that the Spirits don't want to join and reorganize the Pep Club for the simple reason that they, the Spirits, want to remain a separate cheering section.

There is a ridiculous side to this editorial also. This is the statement that the five Spirits who are senators "... in all ethical fairness should have abstained from voting." I just wonder if the person who wrote this editorial thinks that Sen. Jackson or Sen. Magnuson should abstain from voting when there is to be a vote on something that will affect the state of Washington? If they did abstain, I would think that they were rather stupid and silly.

Sincerely,
Ned Flohr

Northwest Student Actors Plan Professional 'St. Joan' Drama

By JUDY KING

George Bernard Shaw enthusiasts will have the opportunity to see one of his most famous plays, the challenging and controversial "St. Joan," produced this month by a group of newcomers to the Seattle drama scene.

THE NORTHWEST Student Actors Guild will present "St. Joan" at 8:30 p.m., Feb. 22, 23 and 25, at the Woman's Century Club Theatre located on Roy Street off Broadway. Tickets are $1.50.

The new actors' guild was formed at the end of last year during spring quarter by two S.U. students, Wally Toner and Jim Kriley, and a Blanchet high teacher, Maury R. Sheridan. Mr. Sheridan is backing the group and directing the production.

Six other S.U. students, Pat Butler, Mary Kay Owens, Alva Wright, Terry McManus, John Dynes and Bonnie Farrell are included in the group, along with students from universities, colleges and high schools, and adults from the Seattle community.

ACCORDING TO Jim Kriley, the group was organized to "provide experience for people interested in the drama field."

"We want to avoid the poor type of productions and mediocre talent which has recently been coming out and take a step in the other direction," said Jim.

The group is self-supporting and tryouts are open to anyone. In the production of a play, the members compete among themselves for parts.

"THERE IS a great difference between amateur and professional actors," said Jim. "I would say we are very, very good."

Jim said that the Old Vic players are coming to Seattle this summer with the same production of "St. Joan." "It will be interesting to see the difference of interpretation."

The approach we are taking to the play is the conflict of individuals, each character warring with his own conscience and unified by Joan," he explained.

On the whole, the members of the Guild have been acting three or four years. "St. Joan" is their second play. Last summer they presented "Hasty Heart" by John Patrick in Pigott auditorium.

TICKETS FOR the coming production may be purchased in the ASSU office, or reserved by calling EA 3-5156.

Surging Chiefs Seek to Upend Beaver Dam Tonight

By GERRY HANLEY

The S.U. Chieftains face invasions from the South and the East this weekend. Tonight, the Chieftains take on the O.S.U. Beavers. Tomorrow, S.U. faces Montana State's Bobcats. Both games are at 8 p.m. in the Civic Ice Arena.

Coach Vince Cazzetta's Chiefs, now 12-8, will be meeting one of the top teams in the nation tonight. The sixth-ranked Beavers have fought their way through 16 games without a loss. Their only defeat in 18 games was to Montana.

THE CHIEFS hope to make amends for last month's double-overtime, 83-72 setback in Corvallis. The teams are currently running 1-2 in the race for Northwest Independent honors.

Slats Gill's Beavers boast one of the best starting fives on the Coast. It is led by the "Fearsome Foursome" of Mel Counts, Jay Carty, Steve Pauly and Terry Baker. Bob Jacobson, a terror against S.U., fills out the lineup.

Topping the roster are the "High C" boys—Counts and Carty. The 7-foot Counts is living up to his pre-season billing as one of the best sophomores in the country. Although he had an off-night against S.U., Counts has averaged 18.6 p.p.g. Carty is scoring at a 16.4 clip.

TERRY BAKER and Steve Pauly give O.S.U. deadly outside shooting.

Tomorrow night, the Chiefs hope to take up where they left off against Montana State. A last-rush tip-in gave S.U. a 76-75 triumph Feb. 8 in Bozeman.

Papooses Point For U.W. Frosh

By MIKE McCUSKER

When S.U.'s Papooses began turnouts last October, Coach Clair Markey outlined an objective for the campaign—beat U.W. twice. Tonight in the Arena, S.U. will have a chance to fulfill half its goal, in the first of two encounters with the cross-town rivals. Last season, the two divided their series.

The Pups have recorded a 9-6 won-loss ledger for Coach Frank Mace. The Papooses stand 11-7; 8-2 against J.C. foes.

On their own court, Mace's frosh have suffered only one setback, that to Kirk. Away from home, the Pups have lost to Grays Harbor, Skagit Valley, Centralia, Everett and S.P.C. U.W. holds wins over Olympic, Western, Skagit, Clark, Everett, and Grays Harbor.

IN RUNNING UP an 11-7 standing, S.U. has out-classed Grays Harbor, Everett, Skagit, Olympic, Federal, S.P.C., Bernie's and Western. Non-winning bouts came against S.P.C., Kirk, Cheney, Ft. Lewis and Bernie's.

Only one of S.U.'s triumphs has been by more than 10 points. To quote Markey, "We haven't played a team yet that was shorter than us." U.W. is no exception, overshadowing the Papooses by five inches to a man on the front line.

To stop the Pups, Markey aims to "run whenever we can. If we can tire them out, the less rebounding they'll do."

The players themselves mirror their determination:

BOB BARAZZUOL—The team's up for this game.

RON BUNKER—We really want to get the game.

PAT CHARLES—We're really pointing for it. I don't see how we can miss.

JOHN DOUGHERTY, Manager—We've been shooting for this one since the first day of practice.

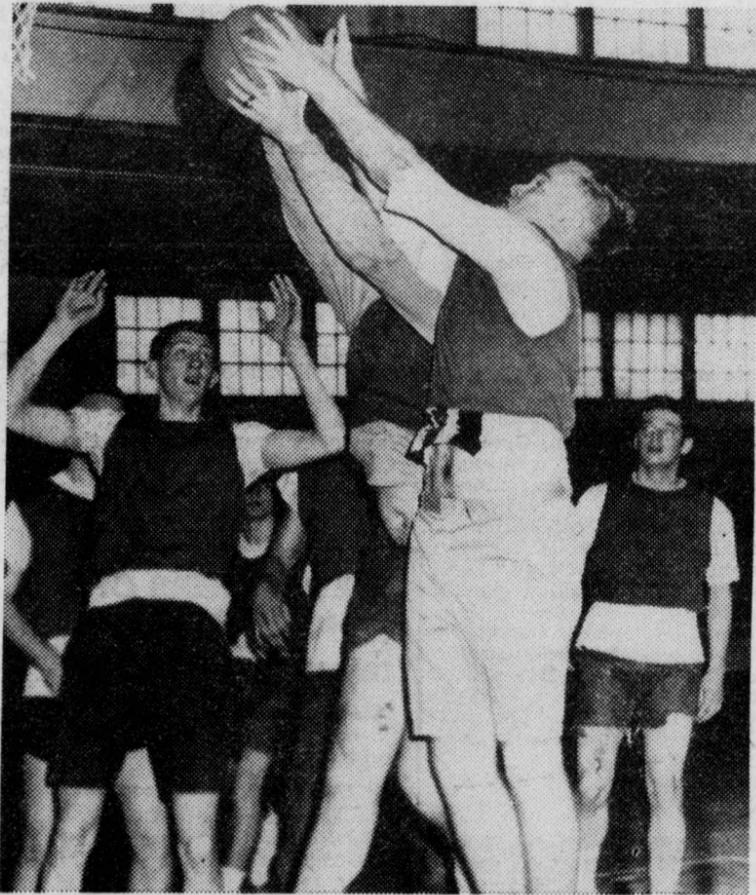

FRANK EDEL—It's building up. I want to beat 'em bad.

BOB JENSEN—We're going to out-run and out-rebound 'em.

MICK McDONALD—This is the peak of our season. We owe this one to the coach as well as to the rest of the school.

DICK WILDER—It really means a lot; you're not going to beat them if you're not mentally ready, too.

CHARLIE WILLIAMS—We're going to kill 'em.

Daughters Win, But 'X's' Lose 1st Game

One winning streak remained intact, but another was interrupted yesterday on the intramural court. The Daughters of the Eastern Star overwhelmed D.T., 59-36, for their fourth win. In the opening contest, Enoch's Knockers gained a tournament spot by crossing out the "X" Team (formerly Monarchs), 53-49. Both teams are now 3-1.

John McGuire scored 16, and

Ed Brillaut 15, for the Daughters. Bob Kelly was top man, with 21 for D.T.

The Knockers got 15 from Ken Crowder, 14 from Enoch Maffeo and 13 from George Jacobson. John Olson notched 20 for the losers.

S.U. Frosh to Play Host To U.W. Pups Tonight

An S.U. frosh team which has taken three of its last four outings will entertain the U.W. Pups in the season's headliner for both teams, tonight at 6 in the Arena. The Pups (9-6) have dropped three of four tilts prior to tonight's duel. S.U. sports an 11-7 record.

The Pups are centered around 6-7 pivotman Gary Hoppes (10.4 average). Dick Lee, 6-6 (11.0) and Bruce Brickner, 6-7 (10.0) flank the forward posts. In the back-court are 6-0. Tom Davis (12.1), a high-school All-America from Oklahoma, and 6-1 Bob Flowers (9.5).

DAVIS, the team's leading scorer, has hit 52 of 55 free stripe attempts, 14 in a row. Brickner and Hoppes like to hook, while Lee goes with a left-handed jump shot. Flowers has been spotty from outside.

Coach Clair Markey will open with his usual starting five of 6-2 Ron Bunker, 6-2 Bob Jensen, 6-1 Frank Edel, 6-0 Charlie Williams and 5-10 Mick McDonald.

Drama Tryouts Monday, Tuesday

Tryouts for "The World of Sholom Aleichem" will be at 7 p.m., Monday, and 2 p.m., Tuesday, in Pigott auditorium.

Fr. James Connors, S.J., head of the speech and drama department, said any student is welcome to try out and there is no limit to the number of parts for which he can try out.

He also said students are needed for seven other production crews. The crews are publicity, stage, sound, lights, costumes, make-up and properties.

IS IT SQUARE TO SEE EUROPE ON A TOUR?

A Munich songfest, a London theatre party, the Lido Club in Paris, the Student Inn in Heidelberg—all are part of American Express' 1962 Student Tours.

This year, American Express will take students to a Bavarian songfest in Munich; a party at the famous Student Inn in Heidelberg; on a gondola tour of Venice by night; a theatre party in London; a "Sound and Light" spectacular at the Roman Forum; open-air opera and concerts in Rome, Verona and Salzburg; a Swiss fondue dinner; on a visit to the Flea Market, and to dinner and show at the Lido Club in Paris. Does that sound square?

There will be ten student tours in all. These tours are priced from $1132 up, including transportation. Details are arranged by a regular tour escort. You needn't fuss over timetables and road maps. You'll have more time to learn, to see things, make friends and have fun.

The tours will leave New York June 8 through July 12 and return July 26-Sept. 5. They last from 6 to 10½ weeks. Six tours feature transportation on the new S.S. France. In addition to Western Europe, itineraries include Russia, the Scandinavian countries and Israel.

Each tour will be led by one or more faculty members from Yale, Harvard, Brown, Briarcliff, Radcliffe, Smith, Simmons, Notre Dame or Southern Methodist.
