Edward Teller to Address Graduates

Bradley Elected Student Body President

THE VICTOR: President-elect Jim Bradley is greeted by well-wishers yesterday in the Chieftain.

By RANDY LUMPP

An unofficial record-breaking total of 1,476 students voted Jim Bradley into S.U. student government's highest office yesterday. Bradley's narrow margin of three votes over Sen. Leo Penne early in the counting grew to a gap of 184 in the final count.

President-elect Bradley arrived in the Chieftain just as the final tally of the open ballot-count was being posted. He was greeted by applause from among nearly 250 spectators.

SEN. ROBERT Burnham gained the senate chairmanship of 1st vice president, 840-610, over Terry Turner. Turner was present for most of the count.

The 2nd vice president position was won by Wally Toner, former election board co-ordinator who resigned to run for office. Toner, who will be leader of S.U. activities for the coming year, won over his opponent, Pat Pheasant, 784-663.

The A.W.S. vote unofficially totaled 888. Town Girls' President Ann MacQuarrie captured a 542 majority over her opponent, Kathy Kelly, in the presidential race. Kathy, a Marian Hall resident, is currently A.W.S. treasurer.

GARY DESHARNAIS, unopposed for publicity director when the filings closed the first time, lost to Pat Campbell by 55 votes. Campbell entered the race after filings were re-opened at Desharnais' request.

Buzz McQuaid, 1962 Homecoming co-chairman, won the ASSU treasurer's job by 254 votes, defeating Carol Ann Conroy.

The office of ASSU secretary will be filled by Sharon Missiaen, who won over Dianne Wheeler by 67 votes.

MARY JO SHEPHERD won the A.W.S. vice president's race from Mary McWherter by 119 votes. Both girls are Marycrest residents.

A.W.S. Treasurer-elect Sharon Morrissey was victorious over Bitsy Lawler by 220 votes.

"Crisis of Civilization" Topic of Lecture:

Noted Author to Speak Here

Fr. John Courtney Murray, S.J., will speak at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the S.U. gymnasium on "The Contemporary Crisis of Civilization," under the auspices of the cultural committee.

Fr. Murray, former associate editor of "America," is a professor of dogmatic theology at Woodstock College, Maryland. He has studied at Boston College, Woodstock and Gregorian University. He holds honorary degrees from Notre Dame, Harvard, Georgetown and St. Louis University.

IN ADDITION to editing the quarterly, "Theological Studies," Fr. Murray has published a book on the relationship between Catholicism and Americanism, "We Hold These Truths." He also has written articles in various journals and encyclopedias.

FR. COURTNEY MURRAY

Among the awards he has received are the Cardinal Spellman Award, Christopher Award, and the Catholic Press Association Award.

HE IS A member of the Elizabethan Club, Yale University, and the Golden Key Society, Georgetown University.

Arrangements for the lecture, which will be free, are being made by Fr. William LeRoux, S.J., assisted by Sharon Missiaen, student chairman of the cultural committee.

Dr. Edward Teller, one of the pioneer scientists in the development of the atomic and hydrogen bombs, will be the featured speaker at S.U.'s commencement exercises, June 8. The Very Rev. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U., made the announcement today.

Dr. Teller, a native of Hungary, is presently a professor-at-large of physics at the University of California. He is now concentrating on the peaceful applications of nuclear energy.

TELLER CAME to the U.S. in 1935 and received his citizenship here in 1941. He was instrumental in the development of the atomic bomb and was the chief contributor to the design of the world's first hydrogen bomb.

He was a member of the general advisory committee of the Atomic Energy Commission from 1956 to 1958.

His writing appears frequently in national periodicals. His most recent writing was a series of articles on survival in atomic war.

BESIDES HIS scientific achievements, Teller is known for his frank and frequent outspokenness.

'Girl of the Month':

A.W.S. Honors Mary Jo Shepherd

Mary Jo Shepherd, Seattle sophomore majoring in speech, is February's A.W.S. Girl of the Month, announced President Mary Lee Walsh yesterday.

Mary Jo was nominated for the award by Spurs, women's service honorary, for her outstanding work on many of that group's projects.

CAROL ANN Conroy, president of Spurs, cited Mary Jo for her work last month as co-chairman of the group's Founder's Day card committee. She helped design, make and mail the cards which were sent to every Spur chapter in the nation.

Mary Jo is an honor student. Her activities include: senator; publicity co-chairman for the library drive; chairman of the senate school song committee; Homecoming; Gavel Club; S.C.C. leadership group; and Marycrest third floor.

DURING FALL quarter, the coed was co-chairman of the A.W.S. Big-Little Sister program and worked on Leadership Conference and Frosh Orientation committees.

Her selection for the honor entitles her to wear the Girl of the Month bracelet and to compete for the Girl of the Year award made during spring quarter.

In yesterday's final A.W.S. elections, Mary Jo won the race for vice president. She defeated Mary McWherter, January's Girl of the Month, 493-374.

MARY JO SHEPHERD

S.C.C. to Sponsor Series Of Saturday Discussions

"You and Your Environment" will be the topic of a Lenten discussion scheduled for 8 p.m., Saturday, in the Chieftain cafeteria. This is the first of a series to be sponsored by the Student Co-operation Committee each Saturday during Lent.

THIS WEEK'S program, headed by Mr. James T. Reilly, psychology professor, is being planned by the senior leadership groups of Jerry Riggs and Bob Wedemeier. A question-and-answer period will follow the discussion and free coffee will be served.

Future plans of the committee include a joint discussion with Mr. Albert Mann, history department, and Dr. David Downes, English professor, and a lecture by the moderator of the U.W. Newman Club.

Editorial

It's Over, But...

Individuals were defeated in yesterday's elections but the general student body won, taking a giant step ahead in the cultivation of student interest.

Ideas and plans for improving activities, elections and student government are in the air. The elections are over but now we need to pull ourselves together and become a united force of students to put these plans into action for the good of all the students.

THIS INTEREST in campus activities was clearly shown by the record number of 1,476 votes in yesterday's finals.

Now that interest in student activities is high and now that we have replenished the store of ideas let's not file them away for future use. Let's start the new administration with a plan of action... the action of initiating the ideas brought forth in the campaigns.

A GOOD START would be the reorganization of the representation of the senate. In order for this to become a reality for the next year, it will have to be planned and enacted before the senatorial elections in spring quarter.

The officers-elect can start now to gather up the workable ideas of not only their own campaigns but those of all the candidates.

ASSU Winner, Loser Keep Smiling

By JIM HARNISH

Both presidential candidates were laughing after the final results of the elections were known yesterday.

Jim Bradley, junior from Seattle, entered the Chieftain where the votes were being tallied, just as the final results were posted. He was mobbed by his supporters. He pushed through the crowd, shaking every hand in sight and not saying much—just smiling.

He did say, "I would like to thank my faithful supporters and I will work to initiate all the plans which I mentioned in my campaign."

LEO PENNE, the losing presidential candidate, laughed when asked for a statement and quipped, "It was a travesty of justice." Then on a serious note he said, "Generally the voters realized and indicated their realization by voting for candidates who have experience and capabilities to put across their ideas for the good of the student body."

Penne said that he slept in Xavier Hall's lounge through most of the balloting and was in the gym watching the basketball team turnout when he learned the results of the elections.

The winners of the 1st vice president and 2nd vice president's races, Bob Burnham and Wally Toner, were both working at their jobs for a law firm. Wally's brother, Kip Toner, had the Chieftain pay phone open to the law firm during most of the elections, so both candidates got a running tally of the votes.

IN A TELEPHONE interview, Burnham said, "I hadn't planned a victory statement." When questioned about the reorganization of representation in the senate, he said, "A decision should be made before the senatorial elections this spring."

Toner said that he would start to work on his proposed plans as soon as he got into office.

In the treasurer's race, Buzz McQuaid said that he thought it was hard to run against a girl because you can't tell what you are up against. Carol Ann Conroy, the loser in the treasurer's race, sat smiling and chatting through most of the counting.

THE CROWD, which varied from 150-250 students, faculty and school employees, had mixed emotions. In two of the close races, the ASSU publicity director and the A.W.S. vice president, there was much excitement when a change of totals was posted. Both cheers and "oh's" were frequently heard during the 2½-hour open counting.

The Very Rev. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U., dropped in for a few minutes during the counting and talked with candidates and students.

Within fifteen minutes after the counting, the Chieftain was almost cleared, with only a few winning candidates and friends remaining, laughing and talking, and a few other eager eaters preparing to be the first in line for dinner.

IS IT SQUARE TO SEE EUROPE ON A TOUR?

A Munich songfest, a London theatre party, the Lido Club in Paris, the Student Inn in Heidelberg—all are part of American Express' 1962 Student Tours.

This year, American Express will take students to a Bavarian songfest in Munich; a party at the famous Student Inn in Heidelberg; on a gondola tour of Venice by night; a theatre party in London; a "Sound and Light" spectacular at the Roman Forum; open-air opera and concerts in Rome, Verona and Salzburg; a Swiss fondue dinner; on a visit to the Flea Market, and to dinner and show at the Lido Club in Paris. Does that sound square?

There will be ten student tours in all. These tours are priced from $1132 up, including transportation. Details are arranged by a regular tour escort. You needn't fuss over timetables and road maps. You'll have more time to learn, to see things, make friends and have fun.

The tours will leave New York June 8 through July 12 and return July 26-Sept. 5. They last from 6 to 10½ weeks. Six tours feature transportation on the new S.S. France. In addition to Western Europe, itineraries include Russia, the Scandinavian countries and Israel.

Each tour will be led by one or more faculty members from Yale, Harvard, Brown, Briarcliff, Radcliffe, Smith, Simmons, Notre Dame or Southern Methodist.

If you'd like full information—itineraries, prices, departure and arrival dates—on all ten 1962 American Express Student Tours, mail in the coupon below.

TWO ALL-AMERICAS. Elgin Baylor and Waverly Davis, pose during a recent weekend workout in the S.U. gym. Baylor, an All-Pro with the Los Angeles Lakers and a former S.U. star, will be back in action when the Lakers and the New York Knickerbockers collide next Monday in the Civic Arena. Davis, a J. C. transfer who suffered serious burns in an accident last spring, has been working himself into shape under Elg's encouragement.

Bowling Finals:

Checkmates Edge Into First Place; Fulton Fires Record 658 Series

S.U.'s intramural bowlers rolled out the season yesterday at Rainier Lanes in top form. Larry Fulton blasted a 659 series, high for the quarter, to push the Checkmates into a first-place finish. The Checkmates (23-9), jumped from third position when last week's leaders, the E's and B's and Four Roses, each dropped three of four matches. The Four Roses lost their final game to the Alley-Gaitors by two pins.

Fulton rolled games of 205, 222 and 231.

Top-notch trundling was also turned in by Mark Hanses and Fr. William Weller, S.J., with 577 totals; Ray Sandegren, 550; Paul Gustafson, 537; Fr. Francis Logan, S.J., 527, and Fr. William Dalgity, S.J., 523.

For the season, Larry Fulton compiled the league's high average, 195, plus series. High game went to Fr. Dalgity, 248. Mimi Burchard copped the co-ed triple crown, with a 142 average, 204 game and 490 series.

Chieftain guard Eddie Miles has been named to the U.P.I. All-Far West basketball squad for the second straight season, the United Press International announced yesterday. On the first team along with the S.U. junior were Mel Counts, O.S.U.; John Rudometkin, U.S.C.; Larry Armstrong, Arizona State, and John Green, UCLA.

Daughters Out:

Internationals, Boys to Tangle

The undefeated Boys and the Internationals will play off at 12:30 p.m. today in the S.U. gym for the intramural basketball championship.

The Internationals yesterday eliminated Daughters of the Eastern Star from the tournament, 58-49, after the Daughters had moved from a 25-13 halftime deficit to within three points.

FRANK KEENAN poured in 20 points to pace the Internationals. Rich Kayla added 13, mostly on late-game foul shots, and Bob Jacobs chipped in 10.

Bill Bakun and Pat Eason netted 12 apiece for the losers, while John McGuire had 10.

Chieftain Seniors:

Shaules, Stautz Look Back, Ahead

S.U.'s two senior guards, Tommy "Shotgun" Shaules and Driving Danny Stautz, have had many meaningful moments during their Chieftain basketball careers. The two have played together since their freshman season, when Shaules averaged 20 p.p.g., and Stautz 16.

SHAULES—

"My first year on the team would be my most memorable one — not necessarily one moment, but the whole year. My rookie season was probably the most exciting.

"As far as my most important game, I'd like to consider the Oregon State game coming up to be just that. For one thing, it could be my last college game. For another, it could mean going to Louisville, which is the goal of every major college in the nation. I couldn't think of anything more fitting than closing my college career in Louisville."

Regarding his future, Tommy said, "I hate to see basketball go. I'll probably play for some Northwest League team. I'd like to teach and coach my own team some day."

STAUTZ—

For Danny, who sat out much of last sea-

By MIKE McCUSKER

S. U.'s Corvallis-bound Chieftains will get a chance to dispel any doubt as to their position in the national picture, when they take on Oregon State's timber trippers in their titanic pre-regional tilt this Tuesday. Under Coach Vince Cazzetta's "lose the battles but win the war" philosophy, the Chieftains, 10th-ranked nationally before the season started, stumbled through an 18-8 campaign, including eight successes in their final eight starts.

The "war" starts Tuesday. If the Chiefs hurdle the Beaver dam, they will journey to Provo, Utah, for the Far West Regionals against Pepperdine, whom they have already topped twice, and the finalist among Arizona State, Utah State and UCLA. From there, it's on to Louisville for the national finals.

THE GAME SHAPES up as a monumental meeting for both teams. Besides its importance in the sectional scope, the Beavers remember S.U. as the team which ended their 16-game win string in Seattle, after losing in two overtimes in Corvallis. The Chieftains are also stirred up over their denial for a neutral game site. A conquest here would carry the Chiefs a long way.

Opposing coaches share Cazzetta's feeling that this year's outfit is stronger all-around than last season's counterpart. A typical comment came from Oregon's Steve Belko after his Ducks upset S.U. in their Eugene engagement: "Seattle's a better club than they were last year. They do more things. You can't trade baskets with that ball club. They're too strong on the boards, too quick."

For the season, S.U. compiled a creditable 11-2 home record, a meager 7-8 away. O.S.U. stands 10-1 at home, and 7-3 on the road, with two left against Oregon.

Cazzetta will send his same starting lineup on the floor, with Ray Butler and Ernie Dunston at forwards, John Tresvant at center, Eddie Miles and Tom Shaules at guards. Butler has been hobbled by a heel wound and Dunston has yet to regain his old spring, but both should be ready by Tuesday.

TOMMY SHAULES

son with injuries, his sophomore season is also his fondest. "When I was a sophomore, I started my first game in the Homecoming against St. Mary's. The second game was against Bradley, which is my personal career highlight."

Of this season's squad, Danny said, "I think we have a good chance for Louisville. O.S.U. looks like the toughest game."

Like Shaules, Stautz hopes to go into coaching after graduation, preferably at the junior college level.
