Baccalaureate Mass Begins Graduation Week

MOST. REV. JOHN J. SCANLAN
Baccalaureate Speaker

Seniors will begin the activities of graduation week today with the Baccalaureate Mass at 9:30 a.m. at St. James Cathedral.

The Most Rev. John J. Scanlan, Auxiliary Bishop of Honolulu, will be the speaker. Bishop Scanlan arrived in Seattle early this week but was not available for comment.

GRADUATES SHOULD report to the nurses' home of Cabrini Hospital on Boren Avenue at Marion Street. Graduates are expected to be robed and ready to leave the nurses' home by 9:10 a.m.

The procession will form on the south side of Marion Street before marching into the Cathedral.

Eight a.m. classes will be dismissed at 8:50 a.m. Nine and 10 a.m. classes will be canceled, but other classes are scheduled as usual.

PRESIDING AT the Mass will be the Most Rev. Thomas A. Connolly, Archbishop of Seattle.

Officers of the Mass will be: Celebrant, Fr. Gerard M. Evoy, S.J.; deacon, Fr. Armand Nigro, S.J.; subdeacon, Fr. James Goodwin, S.J.; assistant to the Bishop, Fr. Frederick Harrison, S.J., and deacons of honor to the Bishop, Fr. Michael Taylor, S.J., and Fr. Thomas Garvin, S.J.

Next Thursday will be the senior reception from 8 to 10 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Olympic Hotel. Graduates and parents are invited.

GRADUATION ceremonies will be at 8 p.m. next Friday at the World's Fair Arena (Ice Arena). At 1:30 p.m., Friday, there will be a practice for graduation in the S.U. gym. All graduates are expected to be present.

Dan Dufficy Appointed Spectator Business Head

Four additional appointments to next year's Spectator staff were announced this week. The positions, all in the business department, include business manager, advertising manager, advertising salesman and accountant.

DAN DUFFICY, junior business major from San Rafael, California, will be the business manager. The job involves supervising and co-ordinating all the non-editorial functions of the newspaper, including advertising, bookkeeping and circulation. Dufficy is currently secretary for S.U.'s chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, national business fraternity.

The advertising manager will be Bob Jordan. Jordan, who worked as Spectator ad salesman and sports reporter during this year, is a freshman journalism major from Seattle. The advertising manager is responsible for securing all local advertising.

The third appointee, Susan Quirk, will assist Jordan in local advertising sales. She is a freshman business major from San Francisco.

Suzanne Green, freshmen pre-med major from Seattle, will continue next year as accountant. She worked in that position this year.

Spectator Photographs Available for 25 Cents

The Spectator photography department will have a picture sale at 1 p.m. today, Monday and Tuesday in the Spectator office. All pictures will be 25c.

Most of the pictures that were run in issues of The Spectator will be available.

Treasurer reports:

Speculative ASSU Budget Drawn

ASSU Treasurer Buzz McQuaid has drawn up an estimated budget for next year and included the cost of S.U.'s joining the National Students Association.

The ASSU has not made the decision whether to join N.S.A. but McQuaid included the cost to show what it would mean in relation to the budget.

THE N.S.A. cost would include: initiation fee, $105; regional fee, $26; two regional conventions, $250; national conventions expenses for two delegates including registration, travel, food and lodging, $670; the total N.S.A. cost would be $1,051.

These figures are based on information given to S.U. at the N.S.A. regional convention last month.

Concerning the projected estimated budget for next year, McQuaid said in a printed report, that the budget will probably not be increased significantly because the enrollment will probably not increase significantly.

AFTER SUBTRACTING the funds for athletics, which this year was $37,500, the allotment should be about $28,600 which is $135 more than last year.

McQuaid said in the report, that this budget is purely speculative although it is a good indication of what might occur.

With the proposed increases in the budget there would be a deficit of $2,450. By not joining N.S.A. the deficit would be $1,450.

THE FOLLOWING is McQuaid's proposed estimated budget and the increase or decrease compared to this year's allotment:

New Jesuit Honorary To Start on Campus

A chapter of Gamma Pi Epsilon, national honorary for women in Jesuit universities, will be established at S.U., at 7:30 p.m., Sunday. The ceremonies will be at the home of Miss Agnes E. Reilly, Dean of Women.

Twenty-two candidates will be presented as charter members. Miss Diana Smith, national corresponding secretary for the honorary, will be here from Lewiston, Idaho for the ceremonies.

THE CHARTER members are: Seniors: Roberta Bogert, Anne Donovan, Mary Anne Hoare, Kathy Keffner, Judy Paulson, Hazel Richards, Roberta Rowe and Pat VanAmburgh.

Juniors: Gerri Derig, Jan Greenfield, Kathy Kelly, Margaret Hands, Pat Hunt, Veronica Miller, Sharon Missiaen, Mary Alice McCullough, Joan Newell, Marilyn Owens, Jerily Pickering, Margaret Raney, Meridith VanRy and Sharon Yates.

The honorary is the counterpart of Alpha Sigma Nu and will serve to identify those upperclass women honor students who understand, appreciate and exemplify the ideals of a Jesuit education.

THESE GIRLS will draw up by-laws and qualifications for membership during the summer and make plans for a formal tapping next fall. Full membership will be 50 or 60, based on S.U.'s enrollment.

In order to select the charter group, all junior and senior women with a g.p.a. of 3.25 or above were asked by letter to indicate their interest in the honorary. From these, a second selection was made on the basis of a 3.5 g.p.a. or above.

THE LIST WAS then approved by the deans of the schools; Fr. Robert Rebhahn, S.J., dean of students; Fr. Frank B. Costello, S.J., academic vice president; and the Very Rev. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U.

Other Jesuit colleges and universities which have Gamma Pi Epsilon chapters are Marquette, St. Louis, Gonzaga, LeMoyne, Creighton, Detroit, Wheeling and San Francisco.

Breakfast Tickets Available at Door

Tickets for the senior breakfast will be available at the door Sunday, Linda Chiappa, senior class secretary said. Tickets are on sale in the Chieftain today.

The breakfast will be at 10:30 a.m. in the Spanish Ballroom of the Olympic Hotel. Tickets are $2.25.

The senior class will present three gifts to the University at the breakfast. They include: donations check for the library drive and furnishings for the chapel in the new men's dorm and a plaque listing the names of the winners of the Loyalty Cups, and the President's Cup.

Awards to be announced at the breakfast are: the Loyalty Cups, Bill Bates Cup, the Gene Febre award and the awards presented by the Dean of Students, Engineering and Commerce and Finance.

BY TONE SHIMIZU

For the past few weeks Hong Kong has been literally forcing back escapees that have somehow managed to expatriate from mainland China. The primary reason given by the British Government for this inhumane act is the limited topography of the small colony to accommodate the thousands of fleeing multitudes across the border and insufficient means of supporting them. Considering the physical contour of the colony this reasoning is logical and might be understandable—but only if this were the substantive cause behind the mass repatriation.

This doubt results from the fact that Great Britain officially recognizes the Peking regime, and has diplomatic, cultural, and trade relations. The question that ensues is whether the present repatriations would have started had Great Britain not recognized Mao-Tse Tung's government.

ENGLAND SEEMS to be doing nothing more than following the principle of improving a "friendship": do nothing that would risk any frowns from Mao-Tse Tung. From Great Britain's viewpoint no one can doubt the political significance that eventualizes from this "code." But conciliation at the expense of a host of human school. The Spectator asks that the column be type-written in a maximum of 500 and a minimum of 200 words. We reserve the right to shorten as space permits or hold for future editions.

beings should not find any justification from any real or pseudo civilized nation.

Had there been no such diplomatic recognition the British government would find no obstacle in officially categorizing the fleeing flock from the Mainland as refugees from the Communist regime. But due to the conditions that do exist between the two great nations, Great Britain, for the sake of not deteriorating any further the "congenial comradeship" between her and Peking, cannot recognize the fleeing conflux as political fugitives. Consequently, England would have to send them back forcibly, as much as she (England) "hates" to, as illegally entering the "sovereign" state of Hong Kong.

WHATEVER OTHER reasons are given by the British Government would hardly be anything more than what she might consider as acceptable and feasible to the other free nations of the world. The emigrants' problem of physical accommodation is minor compared to their problem of whether they would be accepted as refugees or not by the British. Once they could be admitted as such, and do not, as a result, have to be sent back to Communist China, the means for their support could be solved as it has been done in many other parts of the world.

Response to Hong Kong Refugees 'Mortifying'

By PATRICIA HUNT

The feeble response of our nation to the refugee problem in Hong Kong is mortifying. The swarm of starving Chinese fleeing Communist terror is another indication of the failure of communism. But is not our reaction to this tragedy a failure of democracy? The problems accompanying an increase in our immigration quota cannot be insurmountable. Certainly, with intelligent effort a future in this vast country can be found for more than a handful of refugees. America was formed by immigrants from other lands. We have need of those who appreciate freedom.

F. E. WALTER, chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, said that the U.S. should help feed the refugees. He believes this would "deal an almost mortal blow" to the Red regime by dramatizing Peiping's inability to feed its people.

There are more urgent reasons which should move us to action. We can no longer run from the ethical problems which accompany great abundance. We must not allow ourselves to become satisfied with our surplus, smug with our security.

THIS CAN be prevented by transforming our material success into spiritual greatness. We cannot afford to turn away from this crisis unmoved, unmotivated. We have reason for concern if the misery of these people does not initiate on our part a response proportionate to their needs and capacities.

From out the cavernous maw of last year's legislative torpor and cynicism has erupted what would appear to be the liveliest senate in the history of apathetic (or pathetic) student government.

Sens. Leo Penne and Mike Reynolds, rennovated relicts from last, year, spearheaded a foray of senate power-grabbing. The senate had passed a bill to revamp the activities board with the 2nd vice-president as chairman and four senators as members. The senators felt that senate members would be more knowledgeable as to types of activities and club needs.

THE SENATE would approve more quickly, it was argued, an activities calendar drawn up by fellow senators.

Pres. Bradley, addressing the senate under suspended orders, maintained that some non-senators should be on the board to spread more interest and participation in student government and affairs. The ensuing debate between Bradley and Reynolds-Penne settled no issues.

HENCE, Sen. Penne moved to adjourn, leaving the bill as it had been. President Bradley counterattacked the senate vanguard with his executive veto; he would appear to hold the field, pro tempore.

Miles and Mattison Cited Most Valuable

Fifteen S.U. athletes received recognition at the fourth annual S.U. All-Sports Banquet, Tuesday night, in the Washington Athletic Club. The event was sponsored by the Graduates' Club and the University athletic department.

Eddie Miles and Glen Mattison led the hardware brigade, each copping two awards. Eddie's teammates voted him the basketball Most Valuable Player Award. Miles headed the Chieftain scoring, with a 22.3 average for 27 games. Bill Sears, athletic publicity director, presented Miles with the Helms Athletic Foundation's All-America Certificate.

GLEN MATTISON, another junior, won his second baseball Most Valuable Player Award, the first unanimous selection in S.U. history. Mattison also earned the award, named in honor of Dave Tripp, during his freshman year. Glen's .410 batting average captured the Charles E. Sullivan Award for the leading hitter.

The varsity basketball Inspirational Award went to junior forward Ernie Dunston. Ernie averaged 12.4 points in 26 games.

Graduating Chieftains who received letterman coats were Rich Brennan, Ray Butler, Tom Shaules and Dan Stautz.

MICK McDONALD was the recipient of the Jon Arnt freshman basketball Inspirational Award. McDonald scored 145 points in 25 games.

Frank Michael was chosen the Leading Hustler on the baseball team. A junior, Frank batted .247.

A special presentation was made to pitcher Jim Arnsberg by centerfielder Rich Kayla. Arnsberg received a mounted 800-foot tape-measure, in acknowledgment of the blast Steve Anstett hit off him on the Chiefs' last trip to Portland.

SENIOR PETE CARLOZZI was chosen the Inspirational Golfer for his team leadership, trip conduct, sportsmanship and competitive attitude. DeRoss Kinkade received a trophy for his fifth-place finish in the Northern California intercollegiate golf tourney in April. Tom Storey received a citation for a hole-in-one.

Jiro Suguro was given the Fr. Logan Tennis Inspirational Award. As a senior, Jiro played No. 2 in singles and No. 1 in doubles competition. This was his second successive award. Player-Coach John Curran was presented with a plaque by Athletic Director Eddie O'Brien.

Dan Stautz was given the Graduates' Club Scholarship Award. Stautz, an education major from Bremerton's East High, earned a 3.0 g.p.a. during his four years at S.U. Dan averaged .9 p.p.g. as a reserve guard for this year's Chiefs.

Homers Sink Wetbacks:

Ratpack Raps Out Win

Two grand-slam homers gave the Ratpack a 15-12 World Series victory over the scrambling Wetbacks in the S.U. softball playoff, Tuesday at Broadway Playfield.

Lou Spear's bases-loaded poke in the seventh capped the Ratpack scoring, after the Wetbacks had overcome a five-run deficit. A third-inning four-bagger by Sam Butsch put the Pack out front, 7-2.

JERRY TARDIE'S Wetbacks jumped off to a 2-0 advantage in the second off Sam Butsch, Ratpack pitcher-captain. Frank Edel singled and scored on a wild pitch. Jim Jorgensen came in on an error.

The 2-0 spread vanished in the third when, with one out, Gary Galbreath laid down a bunt single and Jerry Haley walked, one of nine bases - on - balls off Butsch. John Hardy then knocked a one-bouncer past third baseman Rich DeBevic, for two runs. Dino Favro got aboard on a boot. Lou Spear popped out, but Jim Schaecher walked, and Dave McDermott singled Hardy home. With the bags bulging, Butsch belted a liner to left that bounced over Doug Parker's shoulder to unload the bases.

THE WETBACKS came back with four in the fifth, on singles by Jack Cvitanovic and Edel, three straight walks and a hit batter.

Two Ratpack runs were scored in the sixth, on Dino Favro's single and an error.

Tardie's troops bounced back in the bottom half with three tallies. Pearsall led off with a base on balls, and went to third on Tardie's single through the middle. Butsch's fielding miscue allowed Pearsall to come home. DeBevic fanned, but Tardie stole home on the dropped third strike. A wild pitch closed out the scoring.

Kip Durrell walked and, two passed balls later, Fr. Robert Rebhahn, S.J., took over for Butsch. The go-ahead run died on third when Jorgensen bounced back to the box.

SIX RATPACK runners raced home in the seventh. Singles by Fr. Rebhahn, Galbreath and Haley, and Spear's two-out smash to center, did the damage.

The Wetbacks staged one of their patented rallies in the lower half. Nick Berlin and Cvitanovic singled. Pearsall and Tardie went out, but Nick Rosetto doubled in a run down the third-base line. DeBevic delivered a two-run rap to center. Edel grounded out to spoil the rally. Fr. Rebhahn (2-0) received the relief win. Pearsall (5-1) took the loss.

Chieftains Take Twin-Bill Sweep

S.U. wrapped up its regular baseball season, Monday, at Broadway Playfield, polishing off S.P.C.'s Falcons by scores of 18-1 and 13-3. The double drubbing gives S.U. a 16-11 mark, with Ft. Lewis as the final game on Wednesday.

Frank Keenan (6-5) fired a four-hit opener, as the Chiefs combed three Falcon flingers for 19 base-knocks. Keenan and Bob Neubauer tagged circuit clouts. Keenan also doubled and tripled.

Rudy D'Amico (5-2) got a 10-hit backing in the finale and coasted to the win. Jim Arnsberg finished up the last two frames.

Steve Wandzilak cracked S.U.'s third inside-the-park homer. Bob Neubauer, who went seven-for-nine for the day, broke his leg rounding first base on a last-inning triple. Neubauer brought his final average up to .356. Glen Mattison, the Chief's M.V.P., left the first game after being hit by a pitch. He finished with a .410 b.a.

Jimmy the Janitor Leaves S.U... Forever

By JAN KELLY

A familiar figure in striped overalls and a blue baseball cap disappeared from the S.U. campus last week never to return.

James Shinzo Nomura, better known as "Jimmy the janitor," died last Saturday in Providence Hospital after suffering a stroke. He was 75 years old.

Seldom has a person, in the service of S.U. for 10 years, become such a part of the University. Everyone knew Jimmy and when a light globe needed replacing or a floor polished, Jimmy was the one who could do it or get it done.

He rarely spoke except to say "How do" to a student or faculty member he recognized, but many a student experienced Jimmy's personal hurt when his diagram was not followed exactly in replacing Chieftain lounge furniture.

BORN IN GUMMA-KEN, Japan, Jimmy came to the United States in 1904. After moving to Seattle in 1925, he went to work for Sears, Roebuck & Co. In his 15 years of employment there, he won two trips to Hawaii for top salesmanship.

In 1941, Jimmy was one of the Japanese in the U.S. who were taken from their homes and placed in camps during World War II. He was first sent to Missoula, Mont., and then was moved to Hunt, Ida. In 1944, he was taken to a Salt Lake City camp where he worked as a type of security guard at the gate.

After the war, he returned to Seattle to find his home and personal belongings had been confiscated. He lived in Renton from 1945 to 1951, until he moved back to Seattle, establishing his family in their present residence, 2514 E. Spring St.

Funeral services will be at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, in the Seattle Buddhist Church.
