MEMBERS OF the cast of Teatro Inigo's production—"Hail, Scrawdyke!" discuss the formation of their own political group. They are: Kevin O'Hara, Larry Sherman and Bill Howard.

S.U.'s Teatro Inigo production of David Halliman's Hail, Scrawdyke! has been recommended for consideration in the selection of the ten plays which will make up the American College Theatre Festival to be held in Washington, D.C., this spring. The play, directed by William Dore, associate professor of drama, was chosen from the college and university productions in Washington, Oregon and Alaska. Regional winners are chosen and recommended to the central committee in Washington, D.C., which makes the final choice. The selection of the top ten productions will take place in late February.

The S.U. cast includes Larry Sherman, William Howard, Kevin O'Hara, Ken Kurtenbach and Cathy Kettrick.

Election Code Revised, Homecoming Affected

A surprise change in the methods of electing S.U. Homecoming court was the unexpected result of a routine revision of the ASSU Election Code by the student senate last night.

Voting at the suggestion of Sen. Mike Duggan, the senators approved the principle of direct popular election of the court.

PRESENTLY, five popularly-elected finalists are culled by a committee including student, faculty and alumni members, which has the power to elect the queen and her court.

Under the newly proposed system, the top senior girl in a final election would become queen, the next two highest girls, her senior princesses.

The Homecoming revision was passed in rough form, with details to be added later by the ASSU first vice president.

OTHER revisions in the Election Code included the striking of a clause forbidding liquor at campaign activities. The senate also scratched a provision forbidding any student to run for one ASSU position more than once.

AWS officers, accompanied by Miss Dona McDonald, assistant Dean of Women, appeared to contest a bill proposing elimination of AWS scholarships.

AWS President Jeannie Mallette called the four $86-a-quarter scholarships "necessity for maintaining the effectiveness of AWS as a coordinating body for women students."

Explanation Delayed on ASSU Fund Rejection

A statement expected to clarify the Black Students Union's rejection of their 1970 budget allocation has been delayed until Monday.

Former BSU president Emile Wilson said yesterday that the statement had been prepared but would have to be presented to the organization's membership before it could be released.

The statement, which was to have been released yesterday, was expected to clarify the BSU's vote last week to refuse an ASSU allocation of $1,025, much of which was to have financed this week's Black Homecoming activities.

BSU Cabaret Dance Homecoming Feature

"We're Young, Gifted and Black" is the theme of the second Black Homecoming observance of S.U.'s Black Students Union.

THE BSU Homecoming will feature a cabaret dance from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 31 in the Norway Center, 300 3rd Ave. W.

The dance is open to all students and friends of the BSU, not blacks only, emphasised Daverne Bell, BSU Homecoming chairman.

"The Black Student Union cordially invites the entire faculty and student body to attend the Black Homecoming," she said.

DANCE highlights will include the coronation of a black Homecoming queen, a half-hour fashion show of Afro-American apparel and presentation of the University's former and present basketball athletes.

The five-member BSU Homecoming court will include four princesses with the queen now being selected by S.U.'s black basketball players.

Music will be by the "Black and White Affair."

Donation is $2.50 per person or $4 per couple.

Club Budgets Voted; Most Requests Sliced

The ASSU budget for 1969-70 came out this week with cuts for most of the clubs. A few, however, did have their budgets increased over last year's allotment.

The total for this year's budget, $54,000, is $200 less than last year.

Of those cut, the ASSU Scholarships were hardest hit with a reduction of $1,405. The Christian Activities Program had a budget reduction of $600. The AWS fund was reduced by $475. The ROTC Drill Team received a budget reduction of $400.

The 69-70 budget is as follows: Aegis, $14,900; Associated Students of Business, $250; AWS, $2,000; BSU, $1,025; Burgundy Bleus, $350; Chaplain's Fund, $350; Christian Activities Program, $250; ROTC Drill Team, $450; Fine Arts, $550.

ASSU Formal Dance, $900; Fragments, $200; ASSU General Fund, $125; Homecoming, $3,300; International Relations Club, $700; Intramural Program, $1,050; Political Union, $2,400; Publicity Director, $350; Rifle Team, $450; ASSU Scholarships, $4,250; Special Events, $3,000; Spectator, $15,600; Spirits, $300; Yacht Club, $350; Contingency, $900.

Mu Sigma Revue Again

Mu Sigma, S.U.'s fine arts honorary, will present its second Mu Sigma Revue tomorrow night at 9:15 in the Tabard Inn.

Admission price will be $25. According to Mu Sigma president Greg Lundquist, this quarter's Revue will follow the same format as the last show, but will present all-new material. The Revue will feature songs, readings, and satirical sketches.

Backlash Alarms Fortas

By Louis Ainsworth

Former Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas spoke to an overflow crowd Tuesday morning in Pigott Auditorium. The main theme of the speech was the current social revolution, and the possible consequences of America's strong reaction to it.

FORTAS opened his speech with remarks about the blacks and the poor. "There is a vast revolutionary attempt to admit these people to full membership in our society . . . There is still in this country an opportunity to accomplish basic reforms by the means of peace and the law."

He deplored the violence with which this campaign is plagued, however, and noted that violence is counter-productive in the U.S. for "there is in this country, and always has been, a strong element of reaction." It was this reactionary element that disturbed him the most.

"WE COULD achieve all the aims of the social revolution, and still have a country in which none of us would really want to live. We could have in this country a suppression of basic freedom in negation of its fundamental ideals."

"The movement toward that has already started and is gaining momentum, primarily by the reaction of people to crime and violence."

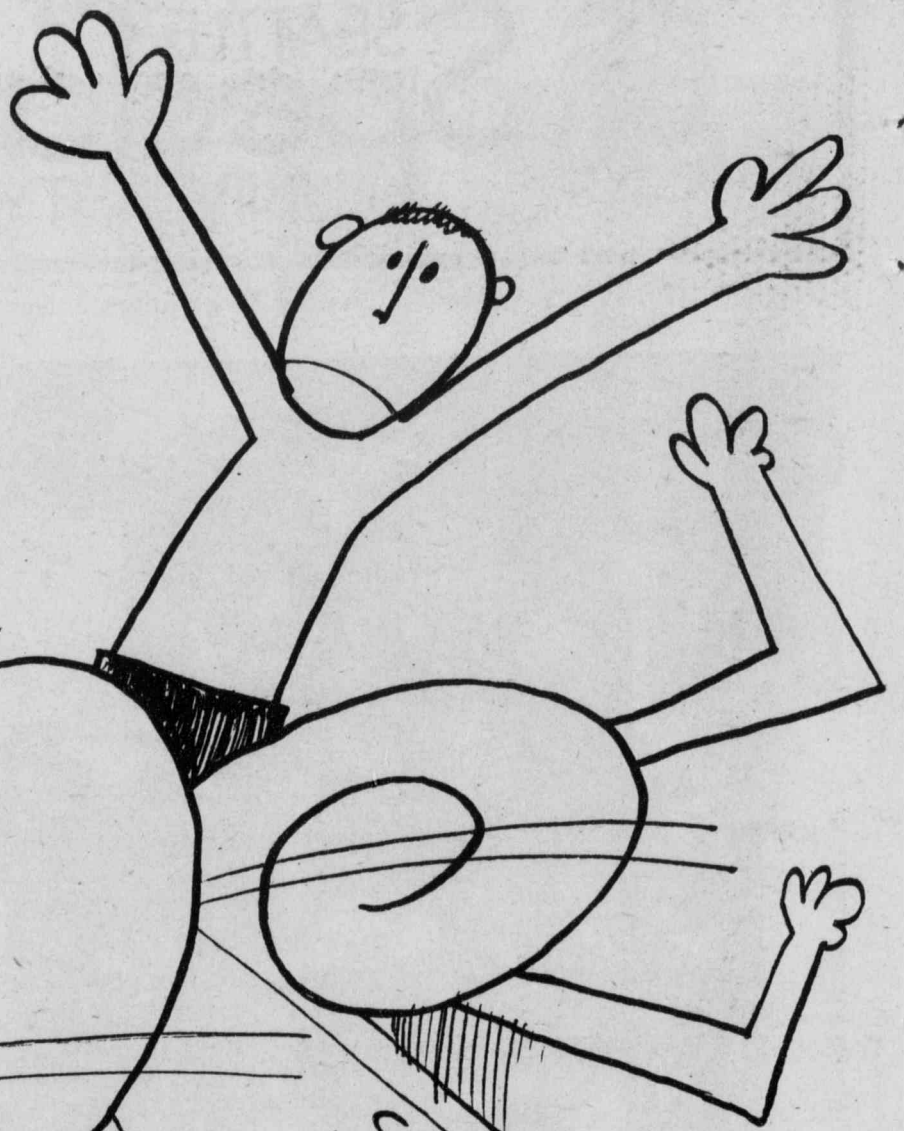

He also noted that the first freedom people had to obtain was the restraint upon the police and upon the state. If that freedom was abridged, the balance between the individual's and the society's rights would be upset.

FORMER SUPREME Court Justice Abe Fortas spoke to an overflow crowd Tuesday morning in Pigott Auditorium. His theme was the crisis of privacy and individual rights under increased police power. Fortas, who led the court in many decisions involving civil liberties, was worried about America's potential reaction to crime in the streets. He felt excessive use of wiretapping and bugging to combat crime could undermine our present First Amendment freedoms.

S.U. Braces for Buffaloes; Play MSU Bobcats Monday

The S.U. Chieftains, following another last minute thriller last Tuesday night, will host the West Texas State Buffaloes on Saturday evening at the Coliseum.

WTS, with a mark of 19-8 last season, has seven lettermen returning from the tournament team.

THE FRONT line of coach Dennis Walling's squad is talented, and very strong. Dave Blaut, a 6-3 forward-guard, "does it all" according to head coach Buckwalter. The senior letterman is quick, scores well with a 24-point plus average, and is able to move well without the ball to get open.

The other backcourt position will probably be manned by 5-11 senior letterman Ron Howle.

"Howle is a strong jumper and a good ball handler," said Buckwalter, "and has good speed and strength." Howle is averaging seven points per game.

James McCloud (16 points) and Gene Murdock (9 points) should start at the forwards. Both are senior lettermen, and are tough and strong. McCloud works the boards and shoots well; while Murdock is tough underneath and gets a lot of tips and 'garbage' shots.

THE POST will be filled by Eddie Fitzgerald, a 6-7 junior college transfer student. Averaging 12 points a game, Fitzgerald has a good hook shot and uses a lot of muscle.

West Texas State is slightly taller than we are," said Buckwalter, "and they play more patient and control type of game.

"They rebound well and will go for the fast break, although they generally are not a run-run team but rather play cautiously most of the time," Bucky said.

The Chiefs travel to Bozeman to play the Montana State Bobcats on Monday night.

GOING INTO tonight's contest with the Houston Cougars, MSU has but one victory in 13 starts,

Big Mt. Trip Deposit Due

The first deposit for students going on the Ski Club's spring break trip to Big Mountain is due Tuesday.

The initial $15 deposit, out of the total package price of $107, may be paid during Tuesday's 7:30 p.m. ski club meeting in Bannon 102. It may also be paid to either Fr. Engelbert Axer, S.J., in Loyola or Mrs. Donahue in Xavier's main office.

The package price includes: round trip transportation by train to the Big Mountain in Whitefish, Mont.; six days and nights of skiing on all lifts; five nights lodging; lunches and dinners at the Big Mt.; and daily transportation between lodging and the Mt.

The remainder of the package price is due March 2. Refunds on the initial deposit will be given until March 1.

Students will leave Seattle March 21 and return March 28.

that an 82-69 decision over Montana.

MSU will be looking to avenge an early season 87-84 loss to S.U. in Seattle. In that affair, the Bobcats had five men in double figures, but could not overcome the S.U. shooting that night.

Game time Saturday night is 8:30 p.m., due to the double header schedule.

Girl's Nite

Tonight, from 6-10 p.m., Bel-larmine Hall will sponsor "Girls' Night" at the P.E. Complex.

The evening will consist of basketball, volleyball and badminton games on the north court, and in the AstroTurf Room there will be softball games for anyone wishing to play.

All women are invited to participate in this fun-filled evening. During this time, no men will be allowed in these areas.

All Varsity Golf candidates will meet on Monday, Feb. 9, at 3:30 in the AstroTurf Room of the Physical Education Center. Failure to attend means loss of opportunity to qualify for team unless individually excused.

Curran Wins Handball Play

S.U.'s first Homecoming Handball Tournament climaxed its four days of competition last Sunday with sophomore Tim Curran emerging as the champion. Curran defeated Randy Santo in the finals by edging him 21-16 in the decisive game.

A total of sixteen players entered the tournament. Their enthusiasm proved so encouraging that another tournament is being planned for spring quarter.

YOU'RE HERE TO GET AN EDUCATION. PERIOD.

With a full academic load, and maybe a job on the side, you need all the time you can find to get what you came for . . . a college education.

Marine Corps officer programs don't require on-campus training. Students enrolled in Platoon Leaders Class receive their training in the summer, either in two 6-week sessions or one 10-week session. And you can enroll in PLC as early as your freshman year, concentrate on your studies and look forward to serving as an officer of Marines after college graduation.

Ask a Marine. Talk to the Marine officer who visits your campus. He has all the facts on Marine air and ground officer training, and he'll be happy to answer all your questions.

Prisoner Tells Tale

John Hvasta, a former exchange student to Czechoslovakia who spent three years imprisoned there during the pre-Dubcek era, will speak about his experiences tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Library Auditorium.

His appearance is sponsored by the New Conservatives.

Hvasta, now a Ph.D. candidate at American University in Washington, D.C., first went to Czechoslovakia in 1948.

He worked for a time at the U.S. Consulate, was arrested and convicted of "espionage" at a secret trial and spent three years at hard labor before escaping.

'Hostage' Tryouts Due

Tryouts will be held at Teatro Inigo next Monday and Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m. for The Hostage by Irish playwright Brendan Behan.

As all major roles require singing, anyone trying out should come prepared with a song. A piano player is also needed.

The play, set in a Dublin brothel, presents an assortment of eccentrics drawn from Behan's own experience on the Dublin streets. Into their activities comes a young British soldier, who is captured by Monsewer, an inhabitant of the brothel who imagines he is fighting the Revolution. This British hostage is to be shot the following morning in reprisal for the execution of an I.R.A. member arrested by the British.

The production will be presented Spring quarter, April 9-18. For further information call EA 3-9400, ext. 235.

Miniature brandy snifters, mementos of the Homecoming formal dance, will be available in the ASSU office from 2-5 p.m. on Monday. Students should bring their bids when they come to pick up the keepsakes.

The snifters were originally scheduled to be given out at the dance but the shipment was delayed, according to Jim Feldman, Homecoming chairman.

ASSU Offices Open To New Candidates

Filing for 1970-71 ASSU positions will be open next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 2-4 p.m. in the ASSU office.

Students must present an unofficial transcript at the time of filing (these available from the registrar) and must have a 2.25 gpa. Candidates for president must be seniors next year but the other offices are open to all present students.

Anyone interested in applying for the post of Election Board Coordinator should contact Doug McKnight in the ASSU office.

Primaries are set for Feb. 12 with final elections on Feb. 17. For the first time, ASSU elections will be held separately from AWS, which will elect new officers at the end of the quarter.

Abe Fortas Speaks With Students

After talking to pre-law students in the Tabard Inn, Justice Abe Fortas had an unplanned meeting with the Black Student Union Tuesday. About 15 members of the BSU gathered in the Chieftain conference room to hear Fortas answer questions put to him by Bobby Davis, B.S.U. president.

When asked if there had been any significant advances in the current black people's crisis, Fortas replied, "I definitely feel things have been accomplished."

In answer to the question of the existence of separate systems for black and white, Fortas said that "one should not resign oneself to having it remain permanent. I think that this has been done in the past, but there is presently a reversal of this attitude."

Davis, agreed with Justice Fortas about accelerating black capitalism efforts, and continued, "The power elite is using the black people as footfalls with their ineffectual programs." These give the blacks, at best, just temporary contentment, he added. Money should be given to programs "which give Negroes a chance to earn a living, not just a chance merely to survive."

Red Cross Interviews Here For Vietnam, Korea Duty

A representative of the American Red Cross will be interviewing graduating seniors for Red-Cross jobs in association with the armed forces Tuesday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Placement Office.

Assignments are open to majors in all arts and sciences fields. Aptitude in group leadership, or in music, art and recreation is desirable.

Single women may apply for recreation worker positions in Red Cross center-clubmobile units in Vietnam and Korea.

Applications will also be accepted for assignments as case-workers and assistant field directors in military installations.

To the Editor:

The recent controversy over homecoming has served to prove to all of us that we are in fact a part of the society and culture that produced us. We are not an ivory tower of "test tube babies" protected from the evils, but not the pleasures, of the world which surrounds us.

I am amazed at the naivete of the authors of some of the letters printed in past issues of The Spectator. What do these parents and students who are now withdrawing their financial support expect of a university? A nursery? A lily white concentration camp? The fence that keeps the problems out is also the boundary of the prison within. What college will they now support, that will not reflect the society in which we live and for which we are all responsible? To the extent that we are honest with ourselves, we will accept our share of blame for the present situation throughout our culture; we will recognize our own racism and maybe then begin to work toward a constructive solution.

This letter is not intended to whitewash anyone, but the attacks on the student senate from both sides are ridiculous scapegoating. Who among us can dissociate ourselves from the responsibility for what is happening? Above all, those of my generation and those of the generation of the parents of our students must identify with that responsibility. Let us then stop screaming "foul play" or "coward" and start to move in a direction of leadership in solving the one problem that threatens all of civilization—racism.

To the Editor:

Although I have had enough contact with the Birch Society to regard it with personal distaste, I am nonetheless dismayed by Fendall Yerxa, Jr.'s, attempt to restrict Father Bradley's use of his free time. As long as Fr. Bradley does not pledge the University's (or the students') support for any cause or movement, he has as much right to engage in political activity as any individual. Mr. Yerxa's attempt to deprive him of this right is unconscionable. Really, Fendall, you should learn a little restraint from your distinguished father.

John P. McMahon

To the Editor:

About that bomb blast: not having any experience with them I only wonder why? Is it that bombs fall from heaven like manna in the desert? Do you think that there are very many other people that would like to blow up schools, or find the challenge irresistibly intriguing? Maybe some fellow found out that the fire crackers he had were louder than he thought. Maybe it was unintentionable. You see somebody happens to carry dynamite, TNT, and keeps a big crane and shiny steel ball in his back yard. Well, what I think happened is that this guy happened to be walking between the liberal arts building and the old science building, and he dropped his bag.
