

Seattle University Undergraduate Research Journal

Student Application

Due Date: October 23, 2017

SUURJ publishes undergraduate research articles from all Seattle University disciplines. Both student submission form and faculty mentorship form must be completed to ensure eligibility. When possible, articles will undergo a blind review process. Student eligibility does not guarantee publication. Students may submit articles up to one quarter after graduation. Refer to SUURJ website for information on word count limitation by subject. Submit articles electronically to the SUURJ website at scholarworks.seattleu.edu/suurj.

Name: _____ Year: _____

If co-authored, list additional name(s) and year(s) [submitter must be first author, and must be an SU student]:

College: _____ Major: _____ Email: _____

Title of article: _____

To which section of SUURJ does your work correspond? _____

What citation style applies to your work? _____

Was this project funded by an external grant? If so, please provide details:

For submissions involving interviews, focus groups, and any other interactions with human subjects, students must have Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval and include any correspondence. Please indicate whether you are including IRB approval and correspondence with this application.

Please include a short student biography explaining how you came to this topic of research, and what you intend to pursue in your major and/or future career (150 words max).

I certify that this submission is entirely my own original work, has not been published in any other format, and is free of plagiarism, falsification, or fabrication.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Seattle University Undergraduate Research Journal

Faculty Mentor Form
Due Date: October 23, 2017

Name and job title of faculty mentor: _____

College: _____ Department: _____ Email: _____

Mentored the work of: (student name) _____

How long you have known this student and in what capacity?

Please 1) explain how this student's work contributes to his/her/their field, and 2) describe your mentorship of the work. Please attach a separate document, if needed.

For submissions involving interviews, focus groups, and any other interactions with human subjects, students must have Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval and include any correspondence. Please indicate whether you are including IRB approval and correspondence with this application.

Was this project funded by an external grant? If so, please provide details:

Would you be willing to be part of the editorial/mentorship process for this essay, if it is selected for publication? (A "no" answer will not affect the student's eligibility.)

By signing this statement, you certify that the submission is entirely the student's own original work, has not been published in any other format, and is free of plagiarism, falsification, or fabrication.

Signature: _____ Date: _____